Sorry I've made such a mess copying these censuses! It's been a while since I've researched the Ritchie and my material is rather scattered.

The above family is #544 in 1860 Marion Co census. They are #161 in 1850 Talbot Co census, but with no children (unless I failed to copy!)

Mrs Jordan, if you should want all of Anna's line, I shall be glad to get it together for you. Actually I have so very much, I'd suggest mailing it to you so you could look over, and copy what you like. My info is on 3"x4" index cards, a card for each family unit.

I would be very grateful for what you have on the Ritch's, also. I'd ~~pl~~ be pleased to pay for xeroxes of it or to copy and return with the same care I would if it were my own. Actually I try to get info on each family member of any kin to me! Of course I can never do, but I've enjoyed trying since I started this "stupid hobby" in 1971 —

Best wishes, and I do hope you can decipher some of this. I shall be looking foward to hearing from you.

Sincerely
John Helms

Sorry, Vivian. Income tax time has me down.

You asked about the Bates Family and the Bates of Old Virginia organization. Yes–I already belong to it. The newsletter has really helped me a lot.

Since I wrote you last, I've been trying to confirm the marriage of David RITCH to Susannah HELMS, but so far I haven't been able to come up with the marriage record. My Helms contact thinks that it is probably true, however, that David and Susannah were husband and wife. Anyhow: thanks for the information you gave me on the RITCH family.

I don't think there's much doubt about the marriage of Leander and (Sophia) Louisa. You're right, however. She was very young at the time of her marriage–sixteen, to be exact–but you've got to remember that her father had died in 1855. Her mother apparently had a hard time raising the family because Martha, Amanda, Sarah, Louisa, and Rebecca all appear on a school poor list in 1860. She was also the youngest daughter and the last one to marry. (Nancy) Rebecca never married and apparently there was something wrong with James Walker–some say he was either mentally retarded or psychologically damaged. Whatever the case may be, we know that he never married either. Not only that, but (Sophia) Louisa was dead at the age of twenty-three after giving birth to three children between 1871 and the year of her death in 1876.

At any rate, take care.

Hello Again, Vivian–

I just noticed something about the marriage of your Daniel Evans BOSWELL to Nona Thomas RITCH, so I thought I'd touch a base or two with you concerning this RITCH family.

Did you know that there are two marriages in the George and Caroline Bates BOSWELL family to men named HELMS? Sarah Frances BOSWELL married William A. HELMS and Sophia Louise BOSWELL married Leander HELMS. Both William and Leander are the sons of Milus (Miles) HELMS and Cordelia Frances BROWN. Now, what makes this whole thing interesting is that Milus (Miles) HELMS is the son of Allen HELMS and Anna RITCH. Interestingly, both your Emanuel RITCH and the HELMS families (including Anna RITCH) come from NC. I don't know who the parents of Anna RITCH were, but I do know that Allen's father was named Tillman HELMS and that he moved to GA with his two sons (Allen and Andrew) and their families around 1835. I think Tillman also had a sister named Susannah Helms RITCH. I don't know how she figures into the mix, but she may well be Anna's mother. (As I understand it, these HELMS folks are given to marrying their cousins by the droves. :))

My question is–do you have any information on who the parents of this Emanuel RITCH, Nona's grandfather, may have been?

By the way, I have something else interesting concerning this matter. At the time Daniel's father, William BOSWELL (b.1834), was living in Harris County, Milus HELMS was also living there, and so was Sophia Louisa Boswell HELMS and her husband Leander. Sophia died 19 Jul 1876 and Leadner remarried, but he remained in Harris County with two of Sophia's children, George and Amanda (1880 census). I found Sophia's youngest child, Leander, in the home of his grandparents (Milus and Cordelia HELMS) also on the 1880 Harris County census. Ironically, this is the same census that shows Caroline Bates BOSWELL and two of her children in William's household. I don't know. Seems like a lot of coincidences to me

Inventory / Estate 1783

According to the various family accounts, JOHN CALDWELL and his wife MARGARET PHILLIPS had six sons and one daughter, as follows:

1. WILLIAM CALDWELL
2. THOMAS CALDWELL
3. DAVID CALDWELL
4. MARGARET CALDWELL
5. JOHN CALDWELL
6. ROBERT CALDWELL
7. JAMES CALDWELL (b. 1734?)

The Christian names of the FOUR brothers in law of JOHN CALDWELL have been supplied by extraneous sources, as all four of them are left blank in the family accounts, but the writer is reasonably sure the names, as given are correct.

7. JAMES CALDWELL, in the family account, is said to have been born in 1734, and to have been the youngest of the seven children. In the light of discoveries made by this writer in working on this family, this statement is greatly in error, or else the framework of this family has been given wrong, because in 1749 both JAMES CALDWELL, SR. and JAMES CALDWELL, JR. appear on the Cub Creek tythe list of WILLIAM CALDWELL, and under the rules followed in those days when the 'JR' would have them been over 18 years of age and born by 1731 to be listed. And also for the same year and the year preceding, 1748, and afterwards, there were TWO WILLIAM CALDWELLS, and no THOMAS or ROBERT. These records make it very awkward to reconcile the family history, for one finds it hard to escape the conclusion that there were three brothers who first settled on CUB CREEK in the then MECKLENBURG COUNTY, named JOHN, WILLIAM and JAMES, and that each of these brothers had a numerous family, the members of which have been badly 'mixed up' with the descendants of the JOHN who appears to have 'hogged' all the history of the family. But the compiler, to save time and space will, in this case, assume that the family accounts are approximately correct and will endeavor as far as possible to follow up the descendants as far as possible. JOHN, the principal head of the family died in OCTOBER, 1760.

1. WILLIAM CALDWELL, the oldest son, married MARGARET PARKS, and died in 1761 in Lunenburg County, on CUBB CREEK. After his death, his widow and children moved to South Carolina and settled in NEWBERRY DISTRICT.
2. THOMAS CALDWELL died on CUBB CREEK. He was alive March 25, 1763, when he and his wife ELIZEBETH CALDWELL witnessed the last will and testament of JAMES DANIEL, of Prince Edward County, who lived in what was known as the BUFFALO SETTLEMENT. He afterwards died and is buried with his brothers WILLIAM and DAVID in the old CUB CREEK Churchyard.
3. DAVID CALDWELL died at some uncertain time contemporaneous with his brother THOMAS, and after his death his widow and children moved to KENTUCKY.
4. MARGARET CALDWELL was the only daughter and she married, probably by 1740, a man by the name of RODGERS (either WILLIAM or THOMAS RODGERS), by whom she had FIVE CHILDREN. Her first husband died in OCTOBER, 1760, within fourteen days of the death of her father JOHN CALDWELL; she then married JAMES MITCHELL, by whom she also had five children. She lost three daughters (probably by the first marriage) in Virginia, and then she and her family removed to KENTUCKY. Her son ROBERT RODGERS died in KENTUCKY.
5. JOHN CALDWELL married MARGARET EWING, the daughter of SAMUEL EWING, who died in 1758, leaving a will in which his daughter and grandson SAMUEL EWING CALDWELL is mentioned. He moved down into MECKLENBURG, first, and settled West of the CATAWBA RIVER in what is now either LINCOLN or GASTON County (near the line), where he raised a numerous family, his son SAMUEL having fought at KING'S MOUNTAIN.
6. ROBERT CALDWELL. He died in MERCER COUNTY, Kentucky, it is said in 1806. He moved first to MECKLENBURG COUNTY, North Carolina, with his brother JOHN, but about 1787, moved to Kentucky. He is known to have been the father of JOHN CALDWELL, SAMUEL CALDWELL, ROBERT CALDWELL and MARY CALDWELL who became the wife of HON. B. C. PARKER. The son John Caldwell died while holding the office of Lieutenant Governor; the son SAMUEL, who married the daughter of REV. HEZEKIAH JAMES BALCH - one of the signers - in MECKLENBURG COUNTY, N. C., was a Major General in the war of 1812, and was the first Clerk of LOGAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, at Russellville. He and his wife ANN BALCH had nine children.
7. JAMES CALDWELL (b. 1734) married HANNAH OGDEN. He graduated at PRINCETON in 1759, and after his marriage settled in ELIZABETHTOWN, N. J. where he was pastor of the Church. Both he and his wife were victims of malicious sharp shooters during the revolution. They had eight children, among them being HON. ELIAS BOUDINOT CALDWELL, who for 26 years served as Clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States in Washington, D. C. Another son, JOHN EDWARDS CALDWELL became a protege of GEN. LAFAYETTE and was educated in France. At the time of the death of REV. JAMES CALDWELL his children, all minors, were placed around his bier in the Church at Elizabethtown, by their father's friend, COL. ELIAS BOUDINOT, who delivered an eloquent and impassioned funeral oration on that occasion. A daughter MARTHA CALDWELL married REV. ROBERT FINLEY, who was later President of FRANKLIN COLLEGE, in GEORGIA.

Dear Mrs. Lane:

Thank you for answering my query re David Ritch/Rich. I really must of been tired when I wrote that query, for Heaven Knows that I meant to say !Fort Benning!! and not McPherson. Fort Benning sent me long ago the burial record of my Ritchs'.

From a cousin in Columbus, who is a daughter of a son of my Emanuel, I have the information that her father had shown her, when a child, 3 unmarked graves and told her that this was her great grandfather , his wife and child.

I do have the David Ritch will from Columbus, Ga. 'Manuel' is may Emanuel and Jefferson is another son. The one, I believe, that is listed along with David and Emanuel in the 1840 Census of Muscogee Co.

My David is from Mecklenburg Co., N. C. I've found this out by tracing the Helm family that traveled and intermarried with the Ritchs'. My guess is that David's father is James Ritchie of Mecklenberg Co.

I'm at work and doing this from a rather poor memory. Being on the staff of Clayton Genealogical Library in Houston doesn't give me much time to do my own research. I'm too busy trying to help others!

Let me know if I can be of any assistance to you.

Sincerely,

Sincerely,
Frances Corry Lane (Mrs. J. Burdette Lane)

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

I was interested to see your query in FAMILY PUZZLERS, No. 577, November 9, 1979 on the family of DAVID RICH (RITCH) who died 1848 in Muskogee County, GA.

Like the cobbler's children who never have shoes, the genealogist keeps so busy with other's lineage they find little time to work on their own. I need to get back to research on my RITCH (RICH) line. As I started this I intended to send you in this letter abstract of the will of DAVID RITCH which is on file in Muskogee County (Columbus) Ga., and now I can't put my hands on it. You probably already have it. Anyway, I think he mentions a son Emanuel. I know he mentions his son "Jefferson" who I believe was his executor. He leaves a legacy to "the woman I now live with", probably a housekeeper since he was pretty old.

My great-grandfather was James Jefferson Ritch who married (2nd) Frances Ann Harris in Muskogee County c. 1850. (It is very frustrating not being able to find a file. I am inventorying and cataloging my very large library and collection and I am forever "losing" things these days.) Anyway, I believe James Jefferson was the son of a John Rich, the records on whom I find in South Carolina and in Elbert County, Ga. I have puzzled over this David Ritch. Anyway, James Jefferson Ritch was 20 years older than Frances Ann Harris. He removed his family to a plantation in Scott County, Miss. in 1852. He was a cotton factor, and I find him anywhere from Charleston, Savannah, Columbus, New Orleans. In fact, he was planning to remove the family to New Orleans, but yellow fever was raging, and on his way back to Columbus from New Orleans he found this plantation and bought it. The tradition in the family is that the name was originally Rich, but the "t" was added to distinguish them from another family. I have tried to verify this. The father of Frances Ann Harris was from Franklin County, N.C., where Frances Ann was born.

Sorry this is such an unsatisfactory letter, but I couldn't resist writing since in all the many years (35 or so) I have worked as a professional genealogist this is the first time I have seen a query on the RITCH line. Let me hear from you and perhaps we can be of mutual assistance.

Sincerely,

Frances Corry Lane (Mrs. J. Burdette Lane)

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

Enclosed you will find the results of my search of Minutes Books in the Probate Judges office in the Muscogee County Court House. Ifeel this is evidence that the "Manuel" Ritch mentioned as son in David Ritch's will is your Emanuel. It would seem that "Manuel" was an affectionate term he used, as the official records are all in the name Emanuel.

I had some time left on the figure of $10.00 you quoted, so I looked up your family in the 1847 Tax List, (which I dont think has ever been published). Ithink the information in this record is interesting :

David was not charged a Poll Tax (could this be because he was indigent or aged ?) since he made his will in Dec. of this year, most likely he was in a bad way healthwise.

Emanuel owned a small amount of land in Paulding Co.(40 acres, could this be from an earlier inheritence? It is such a small tract and is so far removed from this area.) It does give you another area of search (could be the 1830 census index might show a family of Ritch or Gilmores living there.)I am not sure, but the Shadrach Reich you found is probably the German family that were in Muscogee Co. early, I know many of their descendants who still reside in this area. The name is pronounced Rich now, so the possibility exists there could be a very early relationship. They owned "Villa Reich" a famous beer garden, dance hall, resort type establishment that was on the south side of town near the river.

I hope this research proves helpfull in your quest, and if you can find any other tasks I can do for you in this area, please let me know.

Best Wishes,

DEAR MRS. JORDAN:

I HAVE BEEN INFORMED THAT A LADY EMPLOYED AT FT. BENNING HAS CATALOGED ALL CEMETERIES ON THE RESERVATION. I UNDERSTAND THE RITCH FAMILY CEMETERY IS INCLUDED IN THIS WORK.

DO YOU HAVE A LISTING OF THE PERSONS BURIED IN THIS FAMILY CEMETERY? I DO NOT THINK HER WORK HAS BEEN PUBLISHED, BUT, WOULD BE GLAD TO CHECK IF COPIES COULD BE OBTAINED.

IT IS MY UNDERSTANDING THAT SOLDIERS ON FIELD EXERCISES WERE REQUIRED TO REPORT ANY OLD CEMETERIES FOUND WITH A LISTING OF HEADSTONE INFORMATION & LOCATION.

IF YOU THINK THIS WOULD BE OF INTEREST TO YOU, I WILL BE GLAD TO CHECK IT OUT. MY FEE FOR THIS RESEARCH WOULD NOT BE OVER FIVE DOLLARS, INCLUDING XEROXING. OF COURSE, THERE WOULD BE NO CHARGE IF NOTHING IS FOUND.

SINCERELY,
Buster W. Wright

PS: DO NOT SEND CHECK WITH YOUR REPLY, IF YOU WISH WORK DONE WAIT UNTILL I RETURN MATERIAL TO YOU. I WILL AWAIT YOUR REPLY, BEFORE BEGINNING SEARCH.

Dear Mr. Wright:

How very thoughtful of you to take the time to write! I do appreciate your thoughtfulness. Yes, to both your question re 'History of Harris Co' and 'History of Pike Co.', we have both in the Library here, and I have a private copy from my dear mother-in-law, of the Pike Co. book.

Since we last corresponded, a man in Tenn. has written to me telling me that David Ritch is the father of my Emanuel. His evidence is very convincing. But do keep my Sarah Gilmore Ritch, in mind--and if you ever find anything out, let me know, and I'll be glad to pay you for your time.

I was at the Mormon library today, reading some Harris Co. records that I had ordered. I found my D. P. McCullohs along with others that I knew about, also a D. N. McCullohs. Do you think your wifes friend, Miss Elsie McCullohs knows the middle initial of her Dempsey McCullohs? Would you take on the job of running down her info for me? What would you charge? If her mother is living in your area perhaps you could question her. You would know how to get dates and places out of her.

Again my thanks for your thoughtfulness.

Sincerely,

Vivian Jordan

I NOTED YOUR QUERY IN, "FAMILY PUZZLERS", OF MAY 12TH. MY WIFE DONNA WORKS WITH A MISS ELSIE Mc CULLOHS (52) WHO IS A GREAT GRANDAUGTER OF DEMPSEY(1) Mc CULLOHS. HER GRANDFATHER WAS ALSO A DEMPSEY Mc CULLOHS(2) AND HER FATHER WAS RANDOLPH Mc CULLOHS. SHE IS NOT A GENEALOGIST, BUT; STATES THAT DEMPSEY(3) WAS FROM EDGEFIELD DISTRICT, SOUTH CAROLINA. SO SHES BEEN TOLD. THE CORRECT SPELLING OF THE NAME IN THIS AREA IS WITH THE "U" AS SHOWN. HER MOTHER IS STILL LIVING AND IS 74 YEARS OLD. SHE SAID SHE WOULD QUESTION HER MOTHER ABOUT THE FAMILY AND PASS ON ANYTHING ELSE SHE RECALLS.

I HAVE ENCLOSED THE INFORMATION COPIED FROM THE GRAVESTONES IN THE CEMETERY AT WAVERLY HALL, GA. NOTE THE DIFFERENCE IN WM T. BOSWELL (INFANTS) MARKER AND PRINTED RECORD IN "HISTORY OF HARRIS CO. GA" I SUPPOSE YOUR LIBRARY HAS A COPY)

DOES THE CLAYTON LIBRARY HAVE A COPY OF THE "HISTORY OF PIKE CO. GA" BY ROGERS? I NOTE SOME YORDAN FAMILY INFORMATION CONTAINED.

(1) Randolph Mc Cullohs b: 1831 d: 1874
(2) Dempsey Mc Cullohs b: 1828 d: 1878
(3) Dempsey Mc Cullohs b: 1813 d: 1893

AT THIS TIME I DONT FEEL I CAN ACCEPT YOUR OFFER TO SEARCH FOR THE PARENTS OF EMANUEL RITCH AND SARAH (GILMORE) BUT, I WILL KEEP YOUR FAMILY CHART AND IF I FIND ANY CONNECTIONS WILL SEND IT TO YOU GRATIS.

HOPE YOU ARE RECUPERATING FROM YOUR ILLNESS AND ARE NOW IN A POSITION WHERE YOU CAN DEVOTE YOUR TIME TO ANCESTOR SEARCHING.

Dear Mr. Wright:

Thank you for your copy of the Ritch Obituary notice. I'm enclosing a check for $3.75, as requested. Please excuse the delay, but it seems that my gall bladder has decided that it needs attention! So this letter has been somewhat delayed, due to Doctor visits etc.

I'm enclosing a 5 gen. chart for your use.

Since I'm facing surgery and will not be able, I'm imagine to correspond with you with any regularity, perhaps the best arrangment would be to offer you a flat fee for the documented proof of the parents of Emanuel Ritch and Sarah Jane Gilmore. Would $25.00 dollars be satisfactory?

My library has the two books on Ga. marriages...if that is what you are referring to when you say to check '70,000' marriages. One '40,000 marriages' the other 32,000'. Also the Land Lottery books, The Index to Headrights and Bounty Grants in Ga.' etc. You see, there would be much duplication of records, so that is why I'm making this offer to you.

I hope that this will be satisfactory.

DEAR MRS. JORDAN!

PLEASE EXCUSE ME FOR NOT ANSWERING YOUR LETTER MORE PROMPTLY.

ENCLOSED FIND THE OBITUARY FOR EMANUEL RITCH, THAT APPEARED IN THE COLUMBUS ENQUIRER-SUN FEB. 1, 1884. IF YOU WISH A PHOTO-COPY OF THIS, PLEASE LET ME KNOW. OUR COPY OFF OF MICRO-FILM IS A NEGATIVE AND IS NOT OF A VERY GOOD QUALITY. I DID NOT FIND AN OBITUARY FOR SARAH JANE RITCH. APRIL 12TH 1891 WAS A SUNDAY AND THE "ENQUIRER" DID NOT PUBLISH ON MONDAYS. THIS COULD POSSIBLY EXPLAIN THE OMISSION. I SPENT 45 MINUTES ON THIS RESEARCH THE CHARGE WOULD BE $3.75, IF THIS IS AGREEABLE TO YOU.

MY SUGGESTION WOULD BE TO CONDUCT A PRELIMINARY STUDY ON THIS FAMILY IN OUR GENEALOGICAL ROOM. (CHECK COUNTY HISTORY INDEX, CITY DIRECTORIES, MARRIAGE RECORDS, LAND LOTTERIES ETC.) THERE WOULD BE A FLAT RATE OF $15.00 FOR THIS RESEARCH.

WE HAVE MANY WASHINGTON CO. GA RECORDS. SO. PERHAPS WE CAN FIND SARAH JANE (GILMORE) RITCH'S PARENTS IN THIS STUDY. WE ALSO HAVE OVER 70,000 MARRIAGES PRIOR TO 1860 IN GA. SO POSSIBLY WE CAN FIX THE DATE AND LOCATION OF THE MARRIAGE OF THIS COUPLE.

IF POSSIBLE, WOULD YOU SEND ME A PEDIGREE SHEET SHOWING THE COLLATERAL LINES KNOWN TO THIS COUPLE? SOMETIMES THESE CAN AID IN THE RESEARCH.

IF YOU WOULD BE INTERESTED IN RESEARCHING THE COURTHOUSE RECORDS, MY RATE IS $5.00 PER HOUR,

WITH NO CHARGE FOR TRAVEL. I WORK 2 BLOCKS AWAY (POST OFFICE). RESEARCH TIME BEGINS WHEN I ENTER RECORD ROOM.

THE BURIALS ON THE FT. BENNING RESERVATION ARE VERY INTERESTING. THE MILITARY HAVE TRIED TO INDEX ALL OF THE OLD CEMETERIES ON POST. THIS INFORMATION CAN BE OBTAINED BY TELEPHONE, WHICH I WOULD BE GLAD TO TRY AND OBTAIN. I WILL ALSO TRY TO FIND OUT WHERE JONES CROSSING WAS LOCATED.

IF I CAN BE OF SERVICE ON ANY OF THIS PLEASE, LET ME KNOW.

Dear Mr. Wright:

The Bradley Memorial Library of Columbus, Georgia has given me your name as a researcher.

I'm interested in obtaining information on my husband's Ritch line: Emanuel Ritch b. 27 July 1814 N. C.
d. 31 Jan 1884
bu. Fort Benning Reservation (I have all the burial information-children-etc.)

Sarah Jane Gilmore Ritch- b. 11 Dec 1816 Ga.
d. 12 Apr 1891
bu. Fort Benning Reservation etc.
They lived at Upatoi, Ga.

The parents of both are needed. Perhaps obituaries or some local compilations of county records that aren't available to our Clayton Library, would give some light as to where in Ga., Washington Co., that Sarah Jane was born; likewise where Emanuel was born in N. C.

Please bear in mind that Clayton Library has major holdings of genealogical material-all the availbble census records. So you see, in order not to duplicate research, I'm in hopes that the Columbus area will have some locally done family histories; obiituaries.... that will fill the gaps in my research here.

If you are interested, please let me know your charges and if you think you can help me.

DEAR MRS. JORDAN:

I AM SORRY I KEEP RUNNING INTO THINGS YOU ALREADY HAVE ON YOUR FAMILY. BUT, I DO HAVE THEM IN MIND.

YOU MENTIONED THE WILL OF DAVID RICH. DOES IT STATE THE NAMES OF HIS CHILDREN? ESPECIALLY EMANUEL! IF HIS WILL WAS IN MUSCOGEE CO. YOU SHOULD FOLLOW THE ADMINISTRATION IN THE MINUTES BOOK OF THE COURT OF ORDINARY. THIS BOOK IS IN FINE SHAPE, I HAVE WORKED IN IT BEFORE.

I WOULD LIKE TO SEE WHAT INFORMATION YOU HAVE ON DAVID RITCH, SO I WONT DUPLICATE WHAT YOU ALREADY HAVE.

HAVE YOU CHECKED THE 1840 & 1850 CENSUS OF MUSCOGEE CO. GA FOR THE NUMBER OF CHILDREN OF DAVID & EMANUEL? THE 1850 CENSUS IS MOST INTERESTING, IT'S ONE OF THE FEW I HAVE EVER SEEN THAT SHOWED COUNTY OF BIRTH IF BORN IN GA.

NOTHING NEW ON DEMPSEY MCCULLOHS. THE LADY WHO WAS WORKING WITH MY WIFE HAS TRANSFERRED TO ANOTHER DEPARTMENT AND THEY DON'T SEE EACH OTHER VERY MUCH ANYMORE. IF YOU WISH I COULD GET HER ADDRESS, MAYBE A LETTER TO HER WITH YOUR PROBLEMS COULD GET SOME RESULTS HER MOTHER IS UP IN AGE NOW & I DONT KNOW HOW LUCID SHE IS.

Thank you for your continued interest in my Ritch/Rich and McCulloh lines.

This is my information on the Ritchs'.....

In 1800 Early Tax List of Georgia--Shadrach Reich of Montgomery Co. 400 acres- 1 poll.
Stephen Reich of Montgomery Co. 20 acres-1 poll

In 1830, I find in Muscogee Co., Shaderic Rich, 30-40, female 20-30; 1 male -5

In our 1820 Index of Georgia- I do not find a Rich/Ritch/Reich/Ritchie etc. Some day, I'll run all the counties of Georgia and see if this is correct.

In 1850 Muscogee Co. I find my Emanuel Rich - 1 male -5

How very nice to hear from you! Isn't it a small world? I'm enclosing a picture of Dan and me taken a few years ago...thought you might like to know what he looks like now. Edward Holly

My correspondent says that Anna married his Allen Hale and that Jefferson that the Hales and Richs live side by side in Mecklenber N.C. Southwest we do want to meet you. Of course, we want to see the graves. Fort Benning sent me the list of names and dates, but I both want to see for ourselves. It is very interesting that you say that Emanuel's father is also buried there. Where did you get this information? It appears more and more that this David Rich I mentioned in my previous letter could be the father of Emanuel.

In 1860 Emanuel 46 Farmer $7,325 Personal Prop. $20,000!!!
Same children as 1850 with Edward Silas about 1 year old.

You mentioned in your letter about your son having the old deeds and land grants. Would it be asking too much for him to make copies for me? I'm hoping some day to get together a little booklet of some kind on the Rich line and of course these documents are exactly what I need. Also pictures of Emanuel's house in existence.

Would you mind filling in the enclosed form? It is very important to have the children of descendants and if you could list your brothers & sisters before filling in as many of the blanks as possible it would be easier. Also, if you find John Ritchie's will 1787 w. Jane Sons David, William and John Book F, pg 123

But, once again ages are just not reasonable, for this to be my David.

Thank you so much.

Dear Mrs. McCutchen:

I'm terribly slow in getting this letter to you, but that doesn't mean that Mrs. Hayes' kind offer from you didn't reach me, it did, and I've been most anxious to make contact with you ever since receiving her letter.

This is my husbands' line;
His mother-Clifford Allene Boswell dau of Dan Evans Boswell and Nona Thomas Ritch b. 1868 Talbot, Ga. She is dau of Thomas Jefferson Ritch b. 1840 Musc.Ga. He is son of Emanuel Ritch b. 27 July 1814 N. C. d. 31 Jan 1884 Muscogee, Ga.

I have the Fort Benning Records of the Ritch burials on the Army post. I have the opinion of a correspondant that a David Rich(Ritch) is the father of 'Manuel'. He uses the will of David Ritch as his proof.

Could you help me on this line? I seem to be floundering at making the next step which will take me out of Georgia and into N. C. Anything would be most welcome.

Dear Vivian:
I do feel that I can call you Vivian since I've known Dan since infancy. Sorry not to have met you.
I do not feel that I can help you beyond my grandfather Emanuel Ritch. I do know that his father is buried on the military reservation also. This was my father's property. I know where the grave is, but it along

With the other two graves were never marked. They were bricked up with no inscription whatever. I'm not sure about this Sand Ritch but it surely would be interesting to know about him if you find that he indeed is my great grandfather

I was in Atlanta last week-end & talked to Mary Drew & Bradley Boswell. Bradley was not feeling too well, but Mary seemed O.K. My son has all the old deeds & land grants etc. He lives in Cordele, Ga & I'm going down this next week-end Oct 15. If Sand Ritch is mentioned I'll let you know.

Driver Killed in Truck Crash

Sept 28, 1978 Ledger-Enquirer Columbus, GA.

A 21-year-old Columbus man was killed Tuesday when the pickup truck he was driving went out of control on Grey Rock Road, overturned and crushed him.

Reginald Bruce Ritch, 1608 15th Ave., an employee of Lovelace Plumbing Co., Columbus, died of brain injuries.

A passenger in the pickup, Johnny Revells, 17, of Smiths, Ala., received minor cuts and bruises, police said.

Police gave this accounnt of the accident which occurred about 5 p.m.

Ritch was driving south on Grey Rock Road about a half mile north of Warm Springs Road when he lost control of the vehicle.

The pickup left the road and went about 240 feet before overturning. It then rolled nearly 100 feet, before coming to rest upside down.

Ritch was freed from the wreckage by fire fighters, rescue workers and police who together lifted the wreck and pulled him out.

The team worked quickly to free Ritch because leaking gasoline threatened to ignite, police spokesman David Hopkins said.

No reason for the accident was available from police.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by Striffler-Hamby Mortuary, Macon Road Chapel.

Ritch was born Nov. 21, 1956, in Columbus, son of Mrs. Eunice Wood Ritch Tucker and Mr. Emanuel Ritch. He was employed by Lovelace Plumbing Co. and had lived in Columbus all of his life. He was a graduate of Columbus High School.

Survivors besides his mother include his stepfather, Hubert Tucker and two brothers, Raymond Ritch, Montgomery, Ala., Paul Ritch, Atlanta, Ga.

SEE LETTER IN RICH CORRES FILE

Saturday evening.
Georgia, Marion County,
September the 12th. 1863 !!!

Dear husband,-

I again set down to write you a few lines to let you know that we are all well at this time and hope when this reaches you it will find you well. I have nothing of importance to write you. I wrote a letter to you last Tuesday but I dont know whether you will get it or not. I dont know whether I backed it right or not. I want you to write to me in your next letter how to back them. I am going to send you some chicken and biscuit and some potatoes by John Green if he will take it. We have not heard from Mat yet. Uncle Phil started to Charleston last Tuesday. Poppy said he wanted you to find out how salt sold there and if it was any cheaper there than it is in Columbus he would come to see you and buy some. I have not been any place from home since you left. I went to grand paps last Thursday, I heard that Andy Holms was there and I went over to see him. He was gone before I got there and I did not get to see him. The Yankys took him prisoner at Vicksburgh and he got home last week. He was sick all the time and is not well yet.(I suppose the yankeys has taken Knoxville) Old Manviel(?) Rich come when I was at Grand paps and him and me had another round. He wanted to buy a horse and I told him he might have Nero for two thousand dollars and he said he would give me one hundred and I told him I wouldnt pick up one hundred dollars if I was to see it in the road. Rebeccer Ann,went to Mary Ann's tonight and granny is here with me. She says she has not forgotten you. She said she reconed you thought she did not care any thing for you because she did not come to see you start, but she said she could not come. It is getting late. The children is all asleep and granny is gone to bed and I am sitting here by myself. You must take good care of your self. Write to me how you make out about washing, and how you cook and what you have to cook in. I will come to a close for this time. I remain yours truly,Farewell. May the Lord be with you to the end.

Evelina M. A. E. Holms to her husband, Colathiel Holms.

I will send your gloves by John Green.

P.S. Sunday Morning,

I received fifty dollars that you sent me by Wigins this morning. I am sorry to hear that you have been sick. I heard this morning that Adam Hagler was wounded in the thigh.

Colathiel Holms died in Macon Ga. from measles, just before the war closed, and this letter written by his wife was returned to her with his effects.

Mrs Jordan, I just have to send you this — it's one of six letters that my gr grandmother wrote her husband during the war between the states. He was Celathiel Helms, son of Emanuel's sister, Anna.

The "Mat" referred to is James Madison Jourdan, who married her sister. I wonder if you're related to them also ?:?

JMH

P.S. I found these letters at the Ga Archives several years ago. They had been donated to them by some of her kin and the W.P.A. made typed copies and put on film —

From this letter I have Manual was a trader!

Dear Mr. Ritch:

It does seem that you and my husband are cousins, doesn't it? The world seems to be getting smaller in so many ways. Two summers ago, we visited with your mother and sister in Columbus. Elizabeth and Harry Garrett, Aunt and Uncle to Dan, took us there. We tried to get directions to the burying ground on Fort Benning, but after much tramping around, didn't find it. Then after we returned to Texas, I wrote to the Fort B. people and they sent me the transcript that they had of the 'Ritch-Snelling' burial ground. Told me that any time that we wanted to see the place to just let them know and they would be glad to take us to it!! So, we sorta wasted a whole afternoon, but we did enjoy the visit with your folks. Wish that we had met you also, Dan is looking forward to some sort of gathering of the Ritch kin, if we can make it next summer.

I had a nice letter from Mrs. McCutchen and she says that not only Emanuel Ritch is buried there but his father also! Her son has 'all the old deeds and land grants' and I'm writing to her for copies, if he will make them for me. Perhaps, there is some small clue in these papers that might give me a lead. Would you contact her son, if you know the address, and ask him to send me copies? I would pay for the copying, of course.

I have a copy of Emanuel's will but cannot find a will or probate proceedings for his wife Sarah Jane who died Apr. 12, 1891. Do you happen to know where she died? Would you fill in the enclosed chart, for your brothers and sisters- dates and etc. Sure would appreciate it. One of these days I might be able to get up a little booklet on the Ritch line, so be sure that you are as accurate as possible.

By the way, just where is Jones Crossing? Emanuel died 'near' Jones Crossing, so his obituary says. I'm so full of questions, aren't I?

It is awfully hard to deal with the County Clerks and officals now because it seems that so many people are trying to find their ancestors. Since you are in Columbus, it would really be a help to me.

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

I do not know too much about the Ritch line, but I will be glad to help you in anyway I can. Since you informed me that your husband's mother was Clifford Allene Boswell before she married a Mr. Jordan, I am assuming that your husband is Dan Jordan and his father was Enoch Jordan of Molena, Georgia. If this is the case, your husband's mother was my first cousin.

My father was Charles Emmett Ritch who was the brother of Nona Thomas Ritch that married Dan Boswell. His father, which is my grand-father, was Thomas Jefferson Ritch and both my father and my grand-father are buried in Hollywood Cemetery in Atlanta, Georgia.

Emanuel Ritch was my great grand-father. He is presently buried on the reservation here at near by Fort Benning, Georgia. He had a son who also was named Emanuel and a daughter of his presently resides here in Columbus, Georgia and her name is Mrs. Elizabeth McCutchen. I discussed this matter with Mrs. McCutchen and she told me that she had already written you concerning the Ritch line.

I checked with my brother's and sister's, my mother, who is still living, and with Mrs. McCutchen and no one seems to have any record of a David Ritch. I do know that a brother of my father's, whose name was Roy Ritch, migrated to Texas years ago, and probably has some Ritch kin-folks in Texas, but lord knows where.

If your husband is Dan Jordan, please tell him hello for me. I remember meeting him when I was small at his home in Molena, Georgia. This was in the early 1930's and I am sure he does not remember me.

I certainly hope that this little bit of information will be helpful to you, and if I can be of further assistance, please let me know.

Yours very truly,

Jack H. Ritch, Sr.

Dear Mrs. Ritch:

I'm taking a chance that this address is still current. I feel sure that there must be some sort of connection between my husband's great-grandfather, Thomas Jefferson Ritch, and the man of the same name whose will was sent to me by the Muscogee County probate court. Of course when I saw that your Thomas Jefferson Ritch had died in 1966, I knew that a mistake had been made for I had asked for the will of T. J. Ritch who died 1921. (I later found that my Ritch had passed away in Atlanta).

The similarity of names has intribued me for some time, so I'm hoping that perhaps you would be kind enough to tell me of your husband's father and grandfather.

My husband was born in Molena, Georgia and his maternal grandmother was Nona Thomas Ritch, wife of Dan Evans Boswell. She was born 1868 in Talbotton and her father, Thomas Jefferson Ritch, was born 1840 in Upatoi. His father was Emanual Ritch, born 1814 in North Carolina and he and wife are buried on land that now encompasses Fort Benning.

I've searched for many years for the parents of Emanual Ritch. It would just be wonderful if you could help me find something about the Ritch family, where they came from, Emanual brothers and sisters, etc...all because a clerk did not read the death date correctly and sent me the wrong copy of a will!

Any information would certainly be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Dan B. Jordan

You were so thoughtful to send the newspaper clipping of the Ritch that died in the truck crash. I suspect that he was the grandson of a woman that I have had correspondence with-no I take that back--a nephew. I just checked her letter.

She was Sarah Elizabeth Ritch before her marriage to Edward Lee McCutchen. She was b. 1912. Her brother, Emanuel was b. 1909. They were the ch. of John Frost Ritch--a son of my Emanuel Ritch. In short, the the lady that you helped me get in contact with!

Haven't really gotten too much more done on the Ritch line. I do know that David Ritch was Emanuels' father. I believe that David was born in Mecklenberg Co., N. C.

How is your Howze line? Any new leads? We have the 1900 Texas Census now, and I'd be glad to look for your man if you have a county.

Thanks again for the clipping. Keep in touch.

Belinda Hayes

Dear Vivian,

Haven't written in a while as news has been short, but today I noted this is our local paper. It is a treasury yet I knew I would be of interest. Having he was son of Emanuel Riton. I looked in our phone book, but found no Emanuel Riton, so I do not know how you can reach him.

I also have found a Tredan house. Conveyance. Imagine this! All I found is from the County Record. I looked in "The Tredan" book, yet I found nothing to help me.

Wills & Admin. Inventions of Surry Co. Va.
Marriages Hows, daughters of Richard Tredan 1699.
I have traced my family to Brunswick Co. Va. from which Brunswick was formed from part of Surry Co. Va. yet I do not know who married was wife of. Although in the late 1700's the name Tredan House is found in Brunswick Co. Records.

Did you ever correspond with Mrs. Riton? maybe he is kin to Emanuel Riton -

Take care & happy hunting -

Dear Belinda:

Please accept my apologies for being so very pokey in thanking you for sending me the micro-print of my Emanuel Ritch's Obituary. Why is it that other people always have ancestors that have long,long, detailed genealogical obituarys and my ancestors are barely mentioned??

Do appreciate you taking the time to look for the obit of his wife. Please call on me if I can do any service for you. I'll do anything that I can.

Hope you and yours had a good Holiday Season and have a good, safe New Year!!

Most sincerely,

Vivian H. Jordan

Dear Vivian,

I finally made it over to the library. I found the small paragraph on Emmanuel Ritch's death.

I also looked in the week following 12, April 1891 for Mrs. Ritch, but to no avail.

Also Mrs. Amsler, whom you mentioned is the sister of Mrs. Harriet Howze Jones whom I have been in correspondence with for a while. We can each trace our roots back to Brunswick Co. Va, but we still haven't tied up our missing links.

News is short, good luck on your own family tree.

Sincere Regards
Belinda H. Hayes

Dear Belinda:

I wonder if our letters will cross in the mails again? I do appreciate the Lottery records on Rich. Haven't had time, as yet, to see if I already have them or not. Thanks for your effort.

I'm wondering if you would check the newspaper obituary for my Emanuel Ritch b. 27 July 1814? The abstract of Emanuels' obit was sent to me not too long ago. It was taken from the Columbus Enquirer-Sun -(oops-just noticed that I gave you the birth date instead of death date!!) He died 31 Jan 1884. The obit was found in newspaper, Feb 1, 1884. I'm wondering if there was another newspaper servicing that area at that time--and if your library has the films? This particular obit, didn't give much of genealogical value. I would like a photo-copy of it, tho. and any other that you might find.

His wife died 12 April1891, which was a Sunday and the Enquirer did not publish on Mondays, I'm told. Her name was Sarah Jane (Gilmore) Ritch. Would really appreciate copies of any and all records that you find. I would reimburse you for any expense, of course.

I'm real anxious to see if you got any good out of my research for you. Sure hope that Mrs. Amsler can help.

Sincerely,

Vivian H. Jordan

Dear Mrs. Hayes:

I don't know if I've doubled on the same research that you've done on your lost Howze, but last Saturday I had a few moments and checked the following for you.

Checked Texas Land Grants--Nil

Checked the 1840 Republic of Texas Census--Nil

Checked the 1850 Texas census (book form, and not too accurate. There is a newer Texas census due soon and we hope that it will be more accurate). Every Howse/Howes were as follows; Collins Co., Tex. #108-P. Wilson 45 b. Tenn. wife-Mary G. 22 b. Tenn.
Sarah A. 20 b. Tenn.
Jane Howse ? b. Tenn.
Robt. House 8 b. "
Sarah A. " 6 b. "
Liberty Co., Tex --Ann W. Howes 22 B. N. Y.
Several Howe...listed.. Ellis Co....Mary Jane 14 b. Tenn
Galveston Co., William Howe-apprentice 16 b. N. Y.
George Howe-apprentice 15 b. N. Y.
Isabel H. Howe 19 b. S. C.
John Howe -60 b. Mass.
Maria 13- Texas boarder in Convent
James Howe 58 b. Ireland

None of the above seemed to fit anything that you might be able to do something with. Decided to check our family history room and found where a Amanda Howze Amsler gave the library a book on the Howze family. It was printed in 1967. A Mrs. H. M. Amsler gave the book, I think that the two are related. A check of the Houston directory gave me this address--3435 Westheimer Street, Houston, Texas 77027.

If you are not familiar with this book, perhaps a letter to this address will give you the where you might purchase one. There isn't an index, but I could find a Claiborne anywhere.

Dear Vivian;

I do appreciate your kind offer to help me in my research. There are so few people who appreciate genealogy, that when some one offers their help, it is hard to turn it down. I pray that God will bless you for your kind deeds.

As I probable stated before, my third grandfather had a brother whom I understand was supposed to have migrated to Texas before the Civil War. I do not know his name only that he was the son of Claiborne Howze.

I am still going to be on the lookout for data concerning the Ritch and Jordan families for you and I will send you data as it becomes available.

Thank you for your very kind and thoughtful letter of the 24 Aug. 1977. I do appreciate your time and effort in placing me in contact with some 'Ritch' researchers. I will write to them this evening.

Perhaps I could be of some help to you with your lost Texas kin. If you would send me your chart, so that I might have something to go on, maybe some records are available here at our wonderful Clayton Genealogical Library. Be sure and give me names and dates and places.

Again, my thanks. Hope that I can help you.

Dear Vivian,

Just a short note to let you know that Mrs. E. L. (Ritch) McCutchen 4333 Faye Drive, Columbus, Ga 31907, would be glad to help you with your Ritch side. I spoke with her over the phone & she said she knew where Emmanel Ritch was buried. Also Jack Ritch 6152 Cape Cod Ct. Columbus, Ga. 31904, would enjoy corresponding on Ritch side.

I noted John Pope Jordon, do you know there is a John A. Pope Motor Company here. Maybe some searching of Pope line would be nice.

My line is Howze, I am trying to locate a brother of my third-grandfather who migrated to Texas before the Civil War. I haven't even been able to find out his name. Only that he is the son of Claiborne Howze of Cairo (Grady now) was Thomas Co. Ga. I have sent letters to Texas but to no avail.

Dear Mr. Ritch:

Your name and address was given to me by Mrs. Belinda H. Hayes. I'm very interested in obtaining some information on my husbands' Ritch line. If you could shed some light on this line, I would be eternally grateful!!

His mothers name was Clifford Allene Boswell, she was dau of Dan Boswell and Nona Thomas Ritch b. 1868 Talbot Co.
she was dau of Thomas Jefferson Ritch b. 1840 Musc. Ga.
he was the son of Emanuel Ritch B. 27 July 1814 N. C.
D. 31 Jan 1884 Musc. Ga.

I have the Fort Benning Records of the Ritch burials on the Army Post. I also have the opion of a man in Georgia that David Ritch is the father of my Emanuel. He basis this theory on a will of David Ritch in Columbus, Ga., naming a child 'Manuel'.

I certainly hope that you can help me on this. Anything would be appreciated.

I'm terribly slow in getting this letter to you, but that doesn't mean that Mrs. Hayes' kind offer from you didn't reach me, it did, and I've been most anxious to make contact with you ever since receiving her letter.

This is my husbands' line;
His mother-Clifford Allene Boswell dau of Dan Evans Boswell and Nona Thomas Ritch b. 1868 Talbot, Ga. She is dau of Thomas Jefferson Ritch b. 1840 Musc.Ga. He is son of Emanuel Ritch b. 27 July 1814 N. C. d. 31 Jan 1884 Muscogee, Ga.

I have the Fort Benning Records of the Ritch burials on the Army post. I have the opinion of a correspondant that a David Rich(Ritch) is the father of 'Manuel'. He uses the will of David Ritch as his proof.

Could you help me on this line? I seem to be floundering at making the next step which will take me out of Georgia and into N. C. Anything would be most welcome.

Dear Cousin:

I have studied your letter of May 11, and thank you for the nice comments. I have compared your letter with the data on P294 of My Vol V and find differences. Could you answer these questions:

At the time (about 1970) you advised that the name of Emmanuel's family was Reich. Do you still hold with this? You also listed his brothers, Morris, Daniel, William and Herman, all being Hungarian emigrants. Do you still hold with this?At that time you listed Martha Gilmore as being the wife of Emmanual. Is this in error? I would like to correct my records if this is incorrect.

I have sent in a query to be published in our next Kinfolk on this line and have asked our Georgia Rich cousins to get together and research this line in order to find if Emmanuel was an emigrant or was the son of an early settled and born in Georgia. I will let you know any responses I receive. Did you think over joining The Rich Family Association? You might consider this, as much data is printed from time to time which might help.

Yours,

Dear Cousin:

I'm sorry to be so pokey about answering your letter of 15th May. My gall bladder and I parted company the 1st of June, so I'm just now getting to my desk to answer mail. Still a little weak, but all in all had a fairly easy time, and is it good to be home!

Now to try and clear up some information and to answer your questions. Yes, I've joined the Rich Family Assoc. and have received one issue. Hoping for some great things from the wide coverage that the Kinfolk has. I plan, just as soon as I can, to send in the information on the Ritch family Bible that is now in the possession of one of my husband's Aunts in Atlanta. Also in one of your last letters, you mentioned wanting to have a list of the Richs in Georgia, that were in the Amer. Rev. The 1968 publication of the Roster of Rev. Soldiers in Georgia, compiled by Mrs. Howard H. McCall does not have a Rich of any spelling listed. 'Course I believe that the Georgia Archives would have a more up to date list, or perhaps the State DAR.

As you will see in the following pages, the family name either by clerical whim or family preference, jumps from Rich-Ritch-Reich-to Ritch. So, the information that I sent to you so long ago, 1969, that was given to me by my husbands mother, has really held up quite well. Save for the information that Emanuels wifes' name was Martha--census records and wills have proven that wrong. Her name was Sarah Jane Gilmore. BUT as to any knowledge of Emanuel Ritchs' brothers, that came from you in your letter of Aug. 14, 1969. You sent me the same information as is in your Vol. V. pg. 294 in the paragraph above the information that I sent you. I do not know a thing about any brothers or family of Emanuel Ritch. This recent informations from John Helms, about David Ritch being the father of Emanuel appears to be right, as you will see in the census records that I'm enclosing. The 1850 Federal Census of Muscogee Co., Ga. shows my Emanuel Rich and next door the 'Lucinda' referred to in David Ritchs' will as well as the two infant children, William A. Rich 9 yrs., and Mary Rich 8 yrs. So, from the will of David Ritch, signed 6th Dec 1847-it would appear that the brothers and sisters of Emanuel are:(not necessarily in order of birth) Anna who m. Allen Helms
Hannah m. _____Height
Edward
Holly m. David Cry
J. Jefferson
Emanuel m Sarah Jane Gilmore

Dear Cousin:

In reply to your letter of March 22, thank you for your kind comments. It is good for our morale.

If you will write a letter to Miss Alvina Rich Lewis, Cahoon Hollow Road, Wellfleet, Mass. requesting that the Clayton Library (give their address) be sent regular copies of Kinfolk, I'm sure this will be done. Let me know how you make out.

I have placed in the mail to you today my Vol V, as you requested.

Yes, I do have communication with Hans W.B. Reich of Bad Aachen. I have a lot of literature which he has sent. However, it is all in German. Do you understand German?

Any research at all you can do on any Rich, or anyone with the equivalent of that name such as Reich, etc. will be helpful. Yes, Atlanta should have data on Riches in their Public Library, Historical Society, etc. I would like a list of Riches in Georgia who fought in the Revolution. That should be available at their library. Anything you can do will be appreciated.

Julia

Your Volume V arrived in good shape and I do thank you. How many, many hours you must of put in on this and the other volumes! I hope some day to personally meet you, for I know what all went into this type of work...I appreciate. My check is enclosed.

In answer to the question, do I speak German..No, but I have a daughter that should be able to translate, if she hasn't let her German from high school and college get too rusty. Send something down here and let's see if she can help us.

I'm also researching a German line, Johannes Nusz who settled in Kansas ca 1870. Hope some day to get a definate line on just where in 'Prussia' the Nusz family came from. I'll put Hans W. B. Reich of Bad Aachen in my address book. This is my ex-son in law, but he is the father of my one and only grandchild.

In answer to a query in Family Puzzlers re Emanual Ritch, I've received one answer, so far, from John Helms of Knoxville, Tenn. May I quote? 'Emanual Ritch is a brother of my gr gr grandmother Anna Ritch Helms, who migrated to Georgia(TalbotCo.) in 1836. She and family lived in Talbot, Marion, and Harris counties. The last account I have of her is the 1870 Harris Co. census. I think she and husband are buried in the Waverly Hall cemetery, but graves are not marked.' He seems to think that David Ritch, b. 1774-1784 d. 1847 Muscogee Co., Ga. is the father of Emanual. David's ch; Anna, Hannah, Edward, Holly, J. Jefferson, Emanuel, William A. & Mary--all named in his will.(Will Book A pg. 84). No wife named, but 'to Lucinda the woman I now live with, 200 lbs. of port, 35 bushels of corn...etc.' He does not, or the will does not, call Emanual--but calls him Manuel. But in Minute Book B., pg 289, Muscogee Co., 'Emanual Ritch applied for dismissal from guardianship of Mary Ritch Apr. 5, 1858'. Mary and William are named in will as 'my two infant children' and Emanual or rather Manual named guardian.

He also included a letter, written 12 Sept. 1883, by Evelina M. A. E. Helms to her husband, Celathial Helms, son of Anna Ritch Helms, Mr. Helms' line. She mentions 'old Manual Rich ' had tried to buy a horse from her for$100 and she had wanted $2000. Mr. Helms seems to think that Emanuel was a trader. I'm writing him tonight for several

Your Volume V arrived in good shape and I do thank you. How many, many hours you must of put in on this and the other volumes! I hope some day to personally meet you, for I know what all went into this type of work...I appreciate. My check is enclosed.

In answer to the question, do I speak German..No, but I have a daughter that should be able to translate, if she hasn't let her German from high school and college get too rusty. Send something down here and let's see if she can help us.

I'm also researching a German line, Johannes Muss who settled in Kansas ca 1870. Hope some day to get a definate line on just where in 'Prussia' the Muss family came from. I'll put Hans W. B. Reich of Red Aseben in my address book. This is my ex-son in law, but he is the father of my one and only grandchild.

In answer to a query in Family Puzzlers re Emanuel Ritch, I've received one answer, so far, from John Helms of Knoxville, Tenn. May I quote? 'Emanuel Ritch is a brother of my gr gr grand mother Anna Ritch Helms, who migrated to Georgia(Talbot Co.) in 1836. She and family lived in Talbot, Marion, and Harris counties. The last account I have of her is the 1870 Harris Co. census. I think she and husband are buried in the Waverly Hall cemetery, but graves are not marked.' He seems to think that David Ritch, b. 1774-1784 d. 1847 Muscogee Co., Ga. is the father of Emanuel. David's children: Anna, Hannah, Edward, Holly, Jefferson, Emanuel, William A. & Mary-- all named in his will.(Will Book A pg. 84). No wife named, but 'to Lucinda the woman I now live with, 200 lbs. of pork, 35 bushels of corn...etc.' He does not, or the will does not, call Emanuel-- but calls him Manuel. But in Minute Book B., pg 289, Muscogee Co., 'Emanuel Ritch applied for dismissal from guardianship of Mary Ritch Apr. 5, 1858'. Mary and William are named in will as 'my two infant children' and Emanuel or rather Manual named guardian.

He also included a letter, written 12 Sept. 1883, by Evaline M. A. E. Helms to her husband, Celatitial Helms, son of Anna Ritch Helms, Mr. Helms' line. She mentions 'old Manual Rich ' had tried to buy a horse from her for$100 and she had wanted $2000. Mr. Helms seems to think that Emanuel was a trader. I'm writing him tonight for several questions have come to mind. The date on the letter is 1883, but there [illegible] died in Macon, Ga. from measles, just before the war closed and that this letter was returned to his wife with his effects.

I will keep you posted on these things, as I have time to digest, his information and mine. In the mean time, I'm sending you a more up to date family group listing on old Emanual.

These facts taken from Federal Census, Ritch Bible (in possession of Mrs. Mary Gault Boswell Aven of Atlanta, Ga., my husbands' Aunt), Cemetery Records from Fort Benning, Columbus, Ga., and the will of Emanual Ritch, Muscogee Co., Ga.

All of the above are buried on Fort Benning Reservation, what is now Columbus, Ga.-- in the 'Ritch Cemetery' designated as #9 and the 'Snelling Cemetery' #10., EXCEPT Thomas Jefferson Ritch who is buried in Atlanta with his wife, Julia, in Hollywood Cemetery. Thomas J. is not mentioned in his Father's will; James H. is named as executor. Emanual's 6 daughters never married. I'm still trying to find Sarah J Gilmore Ritch's will. Muscogee says they do not have it.

Really must close this 'epistle'.

Dear Cousin:

In reply to your letter of Jan 27, I do have my Vol V for sale. However, I have exhausted my supply of them and am reprinting. If you like, as soon as the reprint is done, I will send you a copy.

I am sending you, under separate cover, a sample copy of Kinfolk, the Rich Family Assoc. peridocal., together with a membership application. You may want to forward it to your husband's cousins in Georgia.

If you have time, I'd be pleased to have you check out the line of Emmanual. Is there a charge for this?

Are you descended from Emmanual, or is your husband? I'd appreciate your tracing your descent from Emmanual so that I may add it to be records.

Yours,

Julia Hogan

Dear Cousin:

In reply to your letter of November 7, the information you gave is exactly the same as is contained inmy Vol. V American Beginnings of the Rich Family.

I do not yet know who the father of Emmanuel Reitch was. I have some people in the south researching for me. Perhaps this will turn up.

Thank you for answering. Are you a member of the Rich Family Association? If not, would you be interested?

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

Your letter of June 4 stated that Mr. F.S. Rich of Houston Texas referred your inquiry on the Reith or Rith or Reitch family to me. I am very much interested for several reasons - first all persons with all form of the name Rich are of interest and (2) I have been holding for some years a file on Richard Reith who died in Marblehead, Massachusetts, always thinking that the name eventually became Rich.

In your particular case I do have a file on an Emmanuel Rich of Georgia. His name was changed for its original form after some years in this country. He was the son of the ancestor and they came to Georgia early in the 1800's. As you undoubtedly know land grants were given out in George from just before 1800, the heaviest volume of them coming in the 1804's and 5's.

The Emmanuel I have reference to came, it is said from Hungary. Emmanuel had these brothers: Morris, Daniel who went to Atlanta, Georgia, William who went to Nashville, Tennessee, Herman who went to Birmingham, Alabama.

I have several lines hanging without ancestors in Georgia, and you list children of your Emmanuel Reitch as Thomas Jefferson, Edward, John James and six sisters. Sometimes the marriage of a sister will give us a name that can be easily traced. Do you know any of the family names who married the ~~sisters of~~ daughters of your Emmanuel Reitch.

Hoping to hear from you,

Yours,

Julia Hogan

Dear Mr. Jordan,

Since I am the Rietsch-Ritsch families genealogist, I'm always very interested in variant spellings of the old family name. I have seen the family name spelled in the manner of Rietch several times before. I hope you will be willing to exchange the information that you have for other information on the Rietsch-Ritsch families.

The Rietsch family is the older of the two spellings that we use today. It is still widely used in parts of southern Germany and eastern France. The newer spelling comes to us via Austria and the German highlands.

My own family came from the Alsace-Lorraine region of France. My great grandfather's passport has the name spelled Rietsch in every instance where someone else wrote the name. When he signed the document, he used the Ritsch spelling. He and his wife had eight sons, and we have a listing of some twenty-five spellings of the name from the various records.

There are four seperate divisions of the family in the United States today without a common ancestor. My group which settled in southern Illinois, is the most active in genealogical research. There is a small group in New York around Long Island. Another group is in Virginia and North Carolina. The most recent discovery was and still is in Wisconsin and California. I have the names of other Ritsch families in Georgia, Ohio, northern Illinois, up state New York and several other places that have chosen not to correspond with me.

Besides this group in the United States, I have active correspondance with Ritsch family groups in France, Austria, Germany, Italy and Czechoslovakia. The Czechoslovakian group reside for the most part in Wein, Austria and their Stammbaum goes back to the early 1600s. They tell me of cousins which migrated to Hungry that spell the name Ritch.

Of course you know that when people come to the states, they like to change their names and other people like to change it for them. I have several families whose name was Bitsch. Rather than suffer the indignity they changed the B to an R and became Ritsch families. Unfortunately this lead to a whole new area of research because these people do not pronounce their name rich but rather reach, which gives us Reach, Reech and on and on and on.

Again I ask if you will please send me copies of the information you have on this Rietch name and please feel free to ask any questions that you may have.

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

Thanks for your letter of 6 Feb 1972.

Like you, I get excited when I get letters in the mail about one of my families.

I can't find it now, but I have written several letters to a Ritsch family in Atlanta, Ga. without getting any answers.

I can't see anyone in your letter that rings a bell. The Virginia family's records go back to Pittsylvania Co., Va. and that is about as close as I come to No. Carolina.

I'm not familiar with Perry H. Ritch, though I've heard that there is a book about the Ritch families in America. I'll write to Mr. Ritch as soon as I can. Mrs. Julia Rich Hogan, I'm well acquainted with. I'm a member of the Rich Family Ass'n and get the "Kinfolk" paper.

I knew if I taxed my brain a little I'd come up with something. John Rich married Susan Brown 23 Jan 1857. The marriage is registered at the County Clerk's office, White Co, Ill. I can't find it now, but I'm sure that Susan Brown was born in No. Carolina. She and John were living at Burnt Prairie in White Co., Ill. at the same time that my great grandfather was there. They had two younger people living with them at the time which were related in some way with Susan. I believe it was John Montrie and a girl whose last name was spelled, MadRiff. What can you do with that?

Thanks again for your letter. I'll keep it on file and if I come up with any new information, I'll write you.

Sincerely,

David A. Ritsch

Mrs. Finley;

I knew the minute that I hung up the phone that I had given you the wrong information! But until I could get hold of my records, I couldn't write. Do forgive me, and perhaps the following will help you and your mother.

The family of Reitch (the e was dropped along the way) came originally from Germany. They were given a 2000 acre land grant from Geo.III.;

The first names that anyone could give me were:
Emmanuel Reitch b.? m. Martha Gilmore

Muscogee Co., Ga. Census 1860 lists:
Emanuel Rich 44 M. famer N. C. (This would give birth date of 1816)
Sarah G. 43 Ga. Then a list of the 10 children, giving all the names that I had been given among which was:

Thomas Jefferson Ritch b. Nov. 5, 1840 Upatoi, Ga. Muscogee Co., Ga.
He married Julia Harris b. 1845,

Of their 10 children, one was my husbands grandmother..Nona Thomas Ritch

Nona Ritch married Dan Evans Boswell 1889 in Columbus, Ga.

That is just about all that I have on the Reitch's.

May I enclose two or three addresses, that perhaps you do not have?
Mr. Perry Holmes Ritch 2008 Walker Ave., Greensboro, N. C. 27403
He is a gentleman of some 72 years that wrote me that ' he had been told that the three Reitch Brothers came over from Germany in the middle 1700's...one settled in the Carolinas (his branch); one went to Georgia (perhaps mine?); the third further west, perhaps Texas.' In his letter he could only name one of the three---Edmond Reitch, his branch.

One other name that never answered my query. Mrs. Julia Rich Hogan

Could it be that your Hugo Ritch was coming to Texas to meet Ritchs that were already here in 1869?

Be sure and tell your Mother to take the Shreveport Journal and to read Mrs, Mildred Watkins' column that comes out every Tuesday, I believe.

So nice to talk with you and perhaps we will meet at the Library?

Dear Mrs Jordan,-

Pardon the delay in answering your letter. We have just returned from a vacation.

I'm sorry but I am afraid I cannot help you much in regard to the Ritch's.

I have been told that three Reitch Brothers came over from Germany in the middle 1700's, and one settled in the Carolinas, One went to Georgia, & one further West Probably Texas.

From Marriage Records I find Edmond "Richey" Married Rachel Cochrane (Also spelled Cawthon). in Mecklenburg County N C in 1799 (He was my Great Grandfather).

His son James Still Reitch was married to Eliza Price in 1842, also in Mecklenburg County, my (Grandfather) who always spelled his name RITCH
My father John Price Ritch was born on Sept 23rd 1861 in Union County (Union County was formed from Parts of Mecklenburg & Anson County in 1844.

I was born Apr. 4th 1897 in Union County N C.

I have been told that the Ritch's were big land owners, but lost most of it by the end of the Civil War.

I understand that Edmond told the Scribe or marriage license clerk. Reitch is my name but the Clerk understood it to be "Richey's" my name"

All the Ritch's married late, so from myself to my great great father we date back to (1774 - Edmund) - (1805 James Still Ritch) (1861 John Price) the latter being my father who died in 1940

I find that the Ritch's all lived to a ripe old age

I find two old books in the library here. one is "Marriage Records before 1699" + the other "Early Marriage Records of North and South Carolina"

If I can be of further help Please call on me

Yours Very Truly
Perry W. Ritch

P.S. all of this letter is from memory and I may have missed some of the dates by a year or two

I recently found a book in the Atlanta Public Library entitled Index of North Carolina Ancestors prepared by the NC Genealogical Society in 1981.

In the book I found reference to:

I have been trying in vain to located information on Stephen Ritch born circa 1790, possibly in the Carolinas and died in 1885 in Appling County, Georgia. Needless to say, I have been unable to find any information on Stephen's ancestors.

I would very much appreciate any information you can furnish me on the Ritches you have researched. I have enclosed a stamped self-addressed envelope.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Jim Ritch

Dear Don:

Sorry to be so long in answering.

The Ritch line is my husband's.

The first into GA was David Ritch/Rich b ca 1780-85 in N.C.

His son...Emanuel(Manuel,in the will)was my husband's 2nd grt grandfather.

David is found in Mecklenburg,NC 1820,1830, and in Muscogee Co.,GA in 1840,~~50,60,70,80~~. He died in ~~1877~~ 1887 and was buried on the family farm which is now part of Fort Benning in Columbus,GA. Emanuel and wife and children are buried there, but no tombstone for David. (My eye jumped to the woong section and I was giving you info on Emanuel, sorry!!) A great grand daughter told me that she remembered her Dad telling her that David was buring in the old family plot.

The above is about all we know on the Ritch line. I will give you a correspondents address that is working or was on the Ritch line.

Mr. Larry Ritch

He may have something in his files on your line.

Good luck and keep in touch.

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

I am presently doing research on my family history, and I found your name in the local genealogy library.

Since I am a descendant of the Ritch family, I am interested in your own research. So far, I have located only a little information on this family, and your research might give me some leads.

I have found some information about this family in the Connecticut and Massachusetts census records for 1790, however I do not have enough material to trace back that far at present. Any information you might have about the early Ritch family in the United States (and prior) would be appreciated. I believe my ancestors moved from North Carolina into northern Georgia, so they are probably related to your line.

Thank you for your help. I am enclosing a stamped envelope for your reply. Of course, if you should incur any other expenses, I will gladly reimburse you. I'm looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Don Bagwell

Charles (born circa 1794) and Sarah Ritch (born circa 1794) moved from North Carolina to Habersham County,Georgia, where he is listed in the 1830,1840,and 1850 censuses. His father may have been John Ritch.

Fowler Fleming Adrine Ritch andBarbary Van Horn Ritch. He was born May 27,1825 and died in 1892. She was born October 11,1831 and died on May 11,1886. They lived in Habersham County,Georgia. His brother may have been Greene H. Ritch. They had 11 children

Thursa C. Ritch (January 8,1865-June 8,1926) married William Harbin Brown. Their daughter Mirtie Lee Brown Bagwell is my great-grandmother.

County that became Elbert County. He and his wife Elizabeth (in Wilkes County) sold May 4, 1791 to Adam Simmons, land on Beaverdam Creek of Broad River granted to John in 1787 and on the same day they executed a deed of gift to their children Larkin, Samuel, John, Lett, Nancy, Hannah and Lucy. In 1797, Larkin in Franklin Count, Ga., gave a power of attorney to his father John to handle property in Pittsylvania County, Va., (where one John Prestage left a 1791 will). The family was in Stafford County, Va., as early as 1732.

313. PRINCE: Widow Rebecca was in the 1805 Jackson lottery.

314. PRINE: Francis and William Prine were in the 1805 Jackson lottery. In 1790, Daniel Prine was enumerated in Charleston, S.C., and in 1800, in Pendleton District, S.C., Daniel 10201-00101 and Francis Prine 20100-00100 were enumerated.

315. PURCELL: Nancy married Benjamin Echols in Franklin County, Ga., 1797, and while her antecedents are not known, it might be noted that both families are found in and near Halifax County, Va. Subsequently, John Purcell married Sally Casson in Jackson County (the Cason family also is found in the Henry County area of Virginia.) John Purcel was enumerated 1820 in Habersham County. Pursel and Pursley, found in South Carolina, appear either to be the same families, or the names are confused.

316. RAGAN: Littleton and Thomas were in the 1805 Jackson lottery. A Ragan family was in Wilkes County, Ga., by 1782 and subsequently in Oglethorpe County, where Jonathan left a will in 1814.

317. RAGSLEY: Allen was in the 1805 Jackson lottery.

318. RAINWATER: Newsum and William were taxed in Aaron Wood's district in Jackson County in 1799. Solomon, a name found in Pendleton District in 1800, was in Warren County in 1827.

319. RAY: George Wray bought of William Head, both of Jackson County, Sept. 3, 1798, land in Jackson with Solomon Ray and James Head as witnesses. One Solomon Ray, in Wilkes County, Ga., married Jane Echols April 5, 1796. Thomas Ray was listed in the 1805 Jackson lottery and in 1806 as Thomas Wray he obtained headright land. In 1820, Thomas, David and Howel Ray were enumerated in Walton County; John in Madison County; and many others in Oglethorpe, Greene, Washington, Elbert and other counties. John A. was in the Jackson 1827 lottery, and William left a will in Jackson County. Among the several Revolutionary soldiers in Georgia at this period was William Ray, who applied from Franklin County, Ga., March 5, 1821, aged 64, for a pension. He state he had enlisted in Amherst County, Va., in 1777, and William Aaron of Franklin County testified he had served with Ray, who died April 6, 1833. John Ray of Union County, Ga., applied July 23, 1853, aged 46, saying he and his sister, Suca were the only children of William. William Ray married Polly Wilson in Oglethorpe County, March 14, 1804. There are a number of other marriages of record in Oglethorpe, including that of Moses Ray and Polly Wilson, Jan. 6, 1804, as well as wills, deeds, etc.

320. REECE: George Rees Sr. was taxed in Jackson County in 1803 and Edwin Reece appears in the 1805 Jackson lottery. George was perhaps the man of that name (Reese) enumerated in Pendleton District, S.C., in 1800. In 1820, there was a Rees family in Clarke County, and others over the state.

321. RICH: Washington Rich was in the 1805 Jackson County lottery and Joseph was in the 1807 lottery (living on Mulberry Fork). In 1820, Washington, along with Daniel E., Edward, Martin and Stephen were enumerated in Emanuel County; Archibald was in Walton County; Charles and William were in Habersham County; Mary and William were in Elbert County, and various others were listed over the state. John Rich, a Revolutionary soldier, in 1827 in Hall County drew Coweta County land granted Nov. 7, 1833.

322. RICHEY: John and Joseph were in the 1805 Jackson lottery. Perhaps of the North Carolina family in Pendleton District.

323. RILEY: Edward Reighley was living in Jackson County Sep. 28, 1801, when Harris and Williamson conveyed to Uriah Humphreys a tract granted to John Gorham Oct. 12, 1797. John Riely was taxed in Reed's district in Jackson County in 1803. None of the name was found in Jackson County in 1820, but in Hall County were James, John and Lemuel Riley; James was in Elbert County, and others of the name in Jones, Morgan, Greene, Columbia and Wilkinson Counties. Those early in Jackson perhaps were related to a family in Abbeville District, S.C., where in 1790, James and William Righley were enumerated. William was a blacksmith, mentioned in the 1801 returns of the estate of Alexander McAlpin in Wilkes County, Ga. An Edward Ryly lived in Orangeburg, South District, S.C., in 1790. In 1827, William Riley, a Revolutionary veteran, was living in Trussell's district of Jasper County, and drew Carroll County land granted June 29, 1830. In Hall County in 1832 was James Rylee Sr., also a Revolutionary veteran, who drew Cherokee County land. The pension declaration of William Riley (R 8828) made in Henry County, Ga., Aug. 5, 1833, stated he was born May 31, 1762 in Baltimore County, Md., and was living in Orange County, N.C., when he entered service, remained there until he was 35 or 40 years old (1797-1802), then moved to Wilkes County, Ga., living near the Oglethorpe County line, moved to Morgan County (where he was enumerated in 1820) for four years, then to Jasper County for two years, then to Henry County.

324. ROBINS: Pliney Robins was in the 1805 Jackson County lottery list. The inventory of Plinny Robbins may be found in the 1808-1812 Elbert County book of Mixed Records. In 1820, William was living in Hall County; Sarah in Greene County, and others in Richmond and Screven Counties. A few marriages are found in Wilkes County from 1794 and in Oglethorpe County from 1799, but in general not many of this family remained in Georgia. John Robins, who purchase in Jasper County, Ga., Oct. 23, 1811, land from Mark J. Allen of Clarke County, Ga., may have been of the group in the Carolinas discussed above. In Franklin County, Ga., William Robins married Mary Hollingsworth, Apr. 28, 1807, and Abby Robins was married Dec. 28, 1811 to John Sanders.

325. ROLLSTON: Ezekiel was in the 1807 Jackson lottery living on Mulberry Fork. David was in Habersham County in 1827. Previously, the family was in upper South Carolina.

326. ROSE: (?) Howell obtained Jackson County headright land in 1801.

327. ROWAN: James Roan of Wilkes County bought April 28, 1801 of M. (Micajah) Williamson of Jackson County, 1000 acres on Mulberry Creek, with John Evans and James Carbell as witnesses. In 1805, Hugh Roan, Estq., and Lewis Rowan were listed in the Jackson lottery. James Rowan (also Roan, Rone) died in Wilkes County in 1810 and his family by 1820 was found in Morgan County, while Hugh Rone was enumerated in Walton County, and others were in Chatham County. The names Hugh and Lewis are not found in the family of James in the Wilkes records. Tunstall Roan was in Wilkes as early as 1785, and he had dealings with Williamson in 1788, buying land originally granted to Michael Cupp, later of Jackson/Gwinnett Counties.

328. ROWDEN: Abraham and Laban were in the 1805 Jackson lottery. Rachel married there William Dale. Laban Rowden and John Routen are found in the Wilkes County records c1797, and the family was variously in Virginia and the Carolinas at this period. The name is spelled Rodden, Raddin, Roddan and in many other ways.

QUERIES FROM READERS:

Mrs. H. S. Glen, Box 400, Moultrie, Ga. 31768, is trying to locate the parentage of DAVID SARGENT who married Isabel McDill. David Sargent was born 1820 died 1865, and ISABEL McDILL'S birth date is unknown but she died in 1887.

Mrs. Glenn has been told that David Sargent was the son of WILLIAM SARGENT and his first wife, name unknown, and that by his second wife there were these Sargent children: Lou, Martha, Joe, George, Pennick, and William Penn.Mrs. Glenn has not been able to substantiate this kinship and would like to hear from anyone having data on William Sargent's children.

Family legend says that the Sargents came and settled out from Atlanta and called the town Sargent, Georgia. There they set up the first cotton gin. She has failed to turn up evidence of the location of Sargent, however and would appreciate any help.

Mrs. Glenn is also trying to find the parents of WILLIAM ELSTON COOKSEY who married FLORA McPHERSON. His War of 1812 record states that at the time of his enlistment he was 24 or 25 years old, and was born in Tatnall, County, Georgia. She sends no birth nor death dates on Flora McPherson, but William Elston Cooksey was born about 1786 and died on July 25, 1879.

Mrs. Glenn's other lines include the names: Frances Matilda Brazzel (1841-1919); Henry Merritt (1842-1896); Emily Zacheaus Waggoner (1841-1928); Andrew Jackson Shepherd (1817-1903); and Mariah Ann Baker (1823-1902).

She would be happy to hear from any reader interested in these additional lines.

Mrs. Jacob L. Horne, Route 2, Box 376, Laurel, Mississippi, is collecting information on her ancestor JEREMIAH WILCHER (Wellshire, etc.) who is listed in the Roster of Revolutionary Soldiers of Georgia. He received a land grant in Washington County, Ga. in 1784. She is also interested in Revolutionary soldier JACOB HORNE.

HISTORY OF MIZPAH CHURCH

Through the kindness of Mrs. David C. Walker, historian for Mizpah Presbyterian Church, Jackson County, we have the following information to share with readers. For those who would like to contact Mrs. Walker directly to obtain other information on the church and its members, her address is 260 King Avenue, Athens, Georgia, 30601.

The Mizpah Presbyterian Church was established in 1872 and located 8 miles from Athens on the Jefferson River Road in Jackson County. A gift of land from Mr. Wash Arnold made possible the organization of the church under the Rev. J. DeWitt Burkhead, D.D., then serving as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Athens. Because Mizpah was the only church for many miles of the Presbyterian faith, its members came by several counties, and by 1886 its rolls contained the names of 96 members. As other Presbyterian churches were established in Arcade and the Central Presbyterian Church in Athens, several members of the Mizpah Church moved their letters to these younger churches. Over the years the membership has steadily dropped as the elderly members died and many younger ones moved away. Today only 11 members on the roll support the church and through their efforts enough funds were collected in 1963 to build a smaller church to replace the larger original building now unneeded. Four of the eleven current members are able to attend the monthly services in this new brick chapel and are joined by others interested in the welfare Sunday" the faithful members of the church. Each "First gather to hear their pastor in the divine service, and to welcome the attendance of interested visitors. Present membership consists mostly of the grandchildren and great grandchildren of the charter members of the church. Mr. R. C. Arnold, a Ruling Elder, is the grandson of Mr. Wash Arnold, donor of the church property.

Many families still use the cemetery to bury their dead loved ones but never attend the services nor contribute to the church's welfare. Since these lots are often allowed to go to grass, the present members ask that all those who have family members interested in the Mizpah Cemetery to come to the church and participate in a Cemetery Cleaning on Saturday morning, July 3rd at 9 a.m. Those unable to help with the cleaning are asked to send a coutribution to defray the cost of clearing their lot to Mrs. Walker.

July 4th is "Meeting Sunday" for the Mizpah congregation and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the members will gather together for a "Homecoming." Descendants of former members are urged to return to this "Homecoming" to help perpetuate the proud history of their ancestors and of this church.

Early pastors of the church were these: Zebulon Groves (1881), Henry Hoyt, Thomas Cartledge (1899), William Baker, Robert Telford, Henry Newton, J. C. Crow (1878), Roy Abram (1899-1914), S. W. DuBose (1914), W. C. Foster (1888-89), C. F. Allen (1924), Strybbling (1919-21), Peabody (1921-22), T. D. Johnson (1926-30), Coker, W. E. Snipes, and the current minister, Mr. Murphy of Columbia Theological Seminary of Decatur.

Over the years these men have served the congregation as Elders and Deacons: W. M. Reeves, C. H. Hardy, Joe Alexander, J. E. Ritch, J. F. Fields, S. F. Wood, O. D. Arnold, S. E. Echols, J. C. Williamson, H. N. Cartledge, George Williamson, Tom Moore, Sam Archer, Rabun Morris, Sam Hardy, Robert Iverson, and Oscar Arnold.

QUERIES FROM READERS:

Mr. Thurman T. Morgan, 17 North 25th Street, Wilmington, N.C., is searching for the descendants of North Carolina Revolutionary Soldier JOHN DANIEL BAGWELL, mentioned in the "Roster of Revolutionary Soldiers of Georgia" published by the Georgia Society of D.A.R. From this volume came the following information: "John Daniel Bagwell, born N.C., died Gwinnett County, Ga., buried 7 miles from Lawrenceville, Ga., in Primitive Baptist Cemetery, Rev. soldier of N.C."

Mr. Morgan would like to have the name and address of any members of D.A.R. whose membership is based on descent from this man. Who were his children and grandchildren? Any information on how to reach the Primitive Baptist Church mentioned and a copy of his headstone, if the grave is marked would be greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Amos Harper, 2502 33rd Street, Lubbock, Texas, writes a most interesting letter seeking information on the JOHN PATTERSON WISE family who lived in Clarke County, Ga. The facts which she has are these: Patterson Wise married POLLY (MARY) LACY, Sept. 14, 1802. His will was recorded Sept., 1833, but she does not have the probate date. Children named in the will are: Wayne, Walden (her great-grandfather), Luiza Bradberry, Ruth Wise, Cleminah Whited, Sarah Ann Williamson Patterson, Mary Ann m. Jacob Edwards, Elinda Ann and Shirwood.

Mrs. Harper hopes some reader can help her locate the place where John P. Wise and his wife Mary were buried so the tombstones can be copied. If there are any descendants of this couple still living here, would you please contact her.

Sherwood Wise, father of John Patterson Wise, left a will in Wilkes County, Ga., which was filed in 1815. There was some kind of argument over this will and it was tied up in court for two years. Sherwood Wise was a Revolutionary soldier according to her information.

Walden Wise of Hinds County, Miss., her great-grandfather, was the son of John Patterson Wise. The Mississippi Wise family were such ardent Baptists that the family helped build the Palestine Baptist Church near Raymond, Miss. The interior of this church remains as it was built, with a dividing line in the middle and women seated on one side and men on the other, with a portion in the rear set aside for the slaves.

Sherwood Wise, Revolutionary Soldier, and his wife Sarah Patton, received land in Georgia for his service to the country.

Are their descendants still in the Clarke County area? Any data or documents on this family would be appreciated by Mrs. Harper.

Dear Vivian,

as a member of the Rich family, I was interested in your inquiry in the Ancestors journal.

I have info on a David Rich (E.) 10-3-1809 (M) Betsey Scott Son of Peter Wall Rich & Sarah Sanders who was son of John Rich & Martha Wall.

I am trying to help some Rich family members locate kinfolk in the state of Ga. Do you have any info on Stephen E. Rich, David Elliott Rich, Joseph a Rich, James Edward Rich or Martha Emma Rich.

I will be glad to share info with you.

Sincerely

Subject: Re: The Ritch Family of Muscogee County, GA

Hi Vivian, I'm sorry it has taken me half a year to respond to your note below, but if you can believe this, it has been sitting in my in-basket waiting for me ever since!

Anyway, thanks for outlining your Ritch connection through your husband's family tree. I have recently followed this family through the census and I even found an online obituary for Thomas Jefferson Ritch found at the county rootsweb site. You can see it here: http://www.roots2buds.net/getperson.php?personID=I6313&tree=nestor.

I also saw that David Ritch had a will dated 1848 in book A, page 84. d 1847 I will look this up next time I go to the GA Archives. It seems that Thomas Jefferson Ritch was named after his uncle "Jefferson" born abt. 1810. I can't find him in the census after 1850.

Then there is a mysterious Simon Ritch who appears in the 1870 Muscogee County census as a 45-year-old mute farm hand, born in SC. Could he be a brother to Jefferson and Emanuel? Prob. Bro/Emanuel I could not find him in 1850 or 1860!

Anyway, I just thought I would take the time to outline a few of my notes. I am trying to trace all the Riches in the South so one day I can hopefully sort the families out.

Two last questions, just for fun:
1) Do you know who this couple from the 1850 Muscogee Co census? John H. Ritch, age 24, and Frances Ritch, age 17. They are the only two in the household.
2) Do you know this couple from the Muscogee Co marriage records? William Ritch married Eliza Williams on 15 May 1842.

Thanks for reading!

Dear Ms. Jordan,

Flora Brantley of Raleigh, N. C. indicated that you were doing research on the RICHEY lines. I too, have been working on that line for eight years now. Most of my research has been in Kentucky. I thought that perhaps we could exchange notes and share information to see if we could establish a tie.

LEMUEL H. RICHEY is as far back in Kentucky that I have been able to go. His family sheet is enclosed. If we can affect a tie, I have some 200 progeny of his that I would be happy to share with you.

I am fairly certain, (though I have not proven it) that Lemuels father was JOHN RICHEY. Further, that JAMES RICHEY in the father of John Richey.

Per the 1850 census, JOHN RICHEY was born in 1776. TABITHA SPENCER was born 9 February, 1781 in the Pendelton District in South Carolina. They were married on 20 April, 1797 and had at least four children as follows:

James C. Richey	b. ca 1798	Barren Co. Ky
Moses Richey	b. ca 1799	Barren Co. Ky
Elizabeth Richey	b. ca 1800	Barren Co. Ky
John Richey	b. ca 1803	Barren Co. Ky

JOHN RICHEY and TABITHA SPENCER had their marriage dissolved in the Kentucky General Assembly on 10 February, 1820.

(JOHN RICHEY married POLLY SIKES on 13 Mar 1820. They had at least three children whom I believe to be Lemuel H. Richey, Christopher H. Richey & Mary(?) Richey. Most of this is substantiated in the 1840 & 1850 Census)

Record of Moravians in N.C.

Vol I 1752-1771

FOREWORD

The history of the Unitas Fratrum, or Moravian Church, should never be studied as a thing apart, for always its members have been citizens of some great nation of the earth, influencing and being influenced by the events of their day and generation. John Hus, the hero and martyr of Bohemia, did not stand alone in the XVth Century struggle for pure religion. In his own land he was preceded by at least three less known men, and across the continent "the Morning Star of the Reformation" had begun his translation of the Gospels into the common speech nine years before Hus was born.

How much or how little the Bohemian Hus was influenced by the English Wyclif will never be known,—their homes were farther apart than men of the present day can realize,—but both Wyclif and Hus lived in a world gory with the blood of battle, scourged by pestilence, bitter with strife between those who claimed to be the leaders of the Church of God. Wyclif was twenty-two when the battle of Crécy was fought, as the English kings began their century-long attempt to gain the throne of France; he was twenty-four when the Black Plague terrified men as war had never done, and led at least some of them to question the relation of man to his Creator; and in the same year in which the Plague swept England Charles IV of Bohemia established the University of Prague.

It was only sixty-nine years from the battle of Crécy to that of Agincourt, but within that period the Swiss Confederacy took shape; Wyclif finished his translation of the Bible, and passed to his reward; the English language, which Wyclif incidentally had done much to formulate, became the medium for Chaucer's poetic expression; John Hus was born, labored, and passed to his fiery end; and rival popes thundered anathemas and excommunications at one another from Rome and Avignon.

And in the condition of the Church as revealed in that last sentence lies the whole reason, humanly speaking, for the existence of the Moravian Church. John Hus was bred a Roman Catholic, and taught to pay all reverence to its priesthood and decrees; he rejoiced in the commanding position then held by Bohemia, whose king was also Emperor of the Holy Roman Empire, and therefore head of all the German States; he eagerly availed himself of the opportunities offered by the University of Prague, then thronged by students from all central Europe, and himself became a professor there. Then he took orders, and saw Church affairs from the inside,—and his eyes were opened to the faithlessness of popes and priests to practically all the laws and doctrines laid down in Holy Writ. He pled and preached, he argued and denounced, he begged his Church to return to its early simplicity and faith and love, but all in vain. His enemies could not meet his challenge to prove him wrong by the Bible, but they could and did imprison him, excommunicate him, and send him heavenward by way of the stake.

But as they had failed to make Hus recant, even so his enemies failed to end his influence. Hus never tried to gain a hearing at the point of the sword, but Bohemia, wild with indignation at the violation of the 'safe conduct' under which Hus had gone to the Council at Constance, flew to arms, and while the Hussite Wars were probably as much political as religious, a little was gained in the way of reform.

And some there were in whose heart the message of Hus had taken deeper root, and to them it was given to found a Church along the lines that he had indicated. Like Hus these men cared much less for dogma than for doing; they wanted a creed that agreed with the doctrines set forth in the Bible, but they wanted much more to have their lives measure up to the ideal set before them in the Scriptures. At first they had no thought of separation from the Roman Church; but when the existence of their organization and their religious independence came to depend upon securing for themselves a ministry of acknowledged standing, they took the necessary steps, and in 1467 secured episcopal consecration for three of the priests who had joined their company. Then came persecution; then success; and by the end of the sixteenth century the Unitas Fratrum was the leading Protestant Church in Bohemia, and through the Unity's schools Bohemia had become the best educated country in Europe.

But the tide turned, and in November, 1620, the Protestants of Bohemia were utterly defeated in battle by the Romanists. It is proof of the leading position occupied by the Brethren that when the storm of vengeance had spent itself, and terms of a sort were made with other divisions of the vanquished, the Unity was utterly denied consideration, and in Bohemia was practically annihilated. It persisted for a while in Poland and Moravia, but there, too, relentless persecution ultimately crushed organization, though traditions of the Unitas Fratrum were cherished in secret, and were committed as precious heirlooms to children and children's children, the "Hidden Seed" of the Unity of Brethren.

In the eighteenth century there again arose a Unitas Fratrum from this "Hidden Seed." Descendants of the Ancient Unity emigrated, in 1722, from Moravia to Saxony, settling on the estates of Count Zinzendorf, a pious young Lutheran nobleman, and there, in 1727, the Unitas Fratrum was reorganized, even to its ministry, the episcopate having been carefully maintained even when there seemed no human possibility of the renewal of the Unity of Brethren.

The Unitas Fratrum of the eighteenth century was therefore heir to the traditions of Hus and the early Brethren, with their insistence on the need for practical religion, vital in the everyday life of everyday men, women, and children; and to this was added the spirit of warm-hearted, whole-souled devotion, poured out upon them by Count Zinzendorf, who, after careful study, threw himself unreservedly into their cause, becoming their generous patron and much-loved leader. "I have but one passion, and that is Christ," said Zinzendorf; and the Moravians—as they were often called from the birthplace of the emigrants of 1722—kept pace with him in fervent devotion, and in the giving of themselves to the service of their Brethren and of the world. "Service" was the keynote of their lives, and they had the unusual clearness of vision to see that needed service was important service, and that the man who made the shoes and the man who wore them to some distant mission field together served the cause of the Lord.

By this time the world had greatly changed. North America had been discovered and partly colonized; Mexico and Peru had drawn many an eager adventurer and seeker after gold. Spain had risen and fallen; France had massacred her Huguenots; England had been ruled by Queen Elizabeth, and had seen the brilliant soldiers, sailors, statesmen, writers, who surrounded her. North Central Europe was divided into numerous Marks, Duchies, and Kingdoms, with Prussia coming into a position of leadership. Savonarola, Luther, Zwingli, Calvin, and many another had taken their share in the struggle for Biblical religion, and the right of the Protestants to worship God as they saw fit could no longer be denied. The University of Halle had become the center of the so-called Pietistic movement, and there were many in Saxony and adjoining provinces who could appreciate the doctrines of the Unitas Fratrum, and not a few eagerly sought admission into their company.

But even in Saxony there were those who could not bear to see the success of others, and, as the Unitas Fratrum grew in numbers and influence, opposition increased, and for a while it looked as though the Moravians, and those who joined them, would be forced to seek another home. Influenced partly by this, and partly by their interest in the heathen, Zinzendorf and the Moravians secured from the Trustees of the Colony of Georgia a grant of land, including two lots in the town of Savannah.

The settlement in Savannah, 1735-1740, is interesting from three points of view: (1) the community of labor and finance, whereby the Moravian colonists, in these five years, supported themselves and repaid the money borrowed to cover the expenses of the journey thither; (2) their missionary labors among the neighboring Indians and an attempt to reach the negroes of South Carolina; (3) the association of the Brethren with John Wesley, and his co-workers, with its influence on the life of the great Methodist, and on the work of the Moravians in England. The mission to the Indians was interrupted by the war between England and Spain, for Georgia was the frontier between the English Colonies and Spanish Florida, and when hostilities began the Indians became restless and left the region where the mission had been started. The war also drove the Moravians from Savannah, for, like the Quakers, the Brethren of that day were conscientiously opposed to bearing arms, while the other residents of the town refused to allow them the exemption from military service promised by the Trustees of Georgia. It was hard to leave the property just freed from debt, but rather than be false to their faith they went, reaching Pennsylvania in time to help with the beginnings there.

The early settlement in Pennsylvania also had three characteristics of interest: (1) the wide-spread mission work among the Indians; (2) the home-mission work among the white settlers of the Colony; and again (3) the common labor for the common good that made these enterprises possible. Once more difficulties arose from misunderstandings on the part of the people among whom they lived; but these troubles passed, this settlement became permanent, and the Brethren won the reputation of being desirable settlers.

This good name led John, Lord Carteret, Earl Granville, to suggest that the Brethren buy from him such land as they desired in North Carolina, and there begin another settlement. The leaders were considering the establishment of another center, which should be free from the interferences that were annoying them in Pennsylvania, and after considering several proposals they decided to accept that of Lord Granville, and to purchase from him one hundred thousand acres in North Carolina.

In the fall of 1752, therefore, Bishop August Gottlieb Spangenberg, then stationed in Bethlehem, Pa., went to North Carolina to look over the Granville territory and select the land. The Granville property was part of the large grant made in 1663 by Charles II to eight English Lords, "the Lords Proprietors of Carolina." In 1728 the heirs to seven of the eight equal undivided shares decided to sell their interests to the Crown, but Lord Carteret, later Earl Granville, preferred to retain his, and in 1744 it was laid off for him, the northern boundary being Virginia, the southern a line which still divides Moore, Montgomery, Stanly, and Cabarrus counties from Randolph, Davidson, Rowan, and Iredell, the eastern the Atlantic Ocean, and the western indefinite, nominally the confines of the continent. Granville, like the Crown, maintained his land-offices in Carolina, and sold for a stipulated amount down, and an annual quit-rent. The Wachovia Tract, selected by Bishop Spangenberg and purchased by the Unitas Fratrum, contained 98,985 acres, cost £500 sterling down, and an annual quit-rent of £148, 9s, 2½d.

The colonists who came to Wachovia in November, 1753, were selected, in part at least, with a view to their trades and professions, so that, conjointly, they were well fitted to establish a settlement in the heart of the wilderness, and make it a center of service to neighbors for eighty miles around. The original plan was to place the Brethren on contiguous farms, where the raising of crops and cattle would furnish the means of a livelihood—the "patriarchal plan" Spangenberg called it—but after seeing the country he advised against this, and in favor of the community of effort which has been so successful in Georgia and Pennsylvania. Therefore, in addition (1) to service of their neighbors, the first colonists in Wachovia were instructed (2) to establish a town where the Moravian ideals of Christian living might be practically realized. Their plan (3) to preach the Gospel to the Indians failed of fulfilment, largely because of the war in which the Red Men were driven westward beyond their reach; but in later years a mission among the Cherokees of Georgia was conducted from Salem.

The Moravian Brethren had a habit of keeping careful daily records—partly, perhaps, an inheritance from the scholarly days of the ancient Unitas Fratrum, but more because of the strong desire for correct information about, and constant communication between, the widely scattered portions of the Unity. Copies of the Wachovia records were sent to Bethlehem, Pa., and to the central Church Boards in Germany, but the originals were kept at home, and are now in the Salem Archives. They afford wonderfully interesting material for a study of events, conditions, the habits of life and thought, of bygone days, and from them the following pages are drawn. When not otherwise indicated, they are translated from the original German.

THE TOUR OF EXPLORATION

[In 1752 Europe was taking a very brief breathing space between the War of the Austrian Succession and the Seven Years War. Francis of Lorraine, husband of Maria Theresa of Austria, was Emperor of Germany, but Frederick the Great of Prussia was rapidly becoming the dominant figure in the Empire. King Augustus III of Poland was also Elector of Saxony, Louis XV was King of France, and George II was King of England.

The English colonies in America were still in the pioneer stage, though the number of settlers was steadily increasing. Gabriel Johnston was Governor of North Carolina until July, when he died, his office being temporarily filled by Nathaniel Rice, ranking member of the Governor's Council. Several counties had been more or less definitely erected in the eastern part of the Colony, but the western, beginning at the watershed between the Cape Fear and the Yadkin, was all known as Anson until the spring of 1753, when the part of Anson lying in Lord Granville's territory became Rowan County.

The Renewed Unitas Fratrum was no longer a handful of refugees, clustered on the estates of Count Zinzendorf, in Saxony, but, as already noted, it had spread to various parts of Europe, to mission fields, and to America. The settlement in Pennsylvania had become important. Several permanent congregations, and a number of preaching places, had been established, and an extensive and successful mission work was being carried on among the Indians; and at the head of the American branch of the Unity stood Bishop August Gottlieb Spangenberg, who was requested to go to North Carolina to select the land for the proposed settlement there.

The Spangenberg Papers, preserved in the Salem Archives, are in two sets. The first consists of Spangenberg's field notes, written in almost microscopic script on small sheets of paper, 23 in number. The wrapper in which they are filed states that they were found in a box which Spangenberg left with Bishop Ettwein, and that Ettwein passed them on to Frederick William Marshall. The second set consists of fair copies of the first, incorporating marginal notes, and was evidently prepared for the use of the Church Boards. In each set, as preserved, there are some sheets not found in the other. In the following translation the original field diary has been used, except where it is necessary to supplement it from the set of copies.

In view of the apparent differences between this translation and that printed in the Colonial Records of North Carolina, Vol. V, two facts should be stated. In the first place there is no such thing as a "literal translation" from one language to another,—the very difference in the construction of sentences forbids that. To give easy, graceful, cultured German a word for word translation would result in strained, unnatural English, that made a mock of the original. The translator, therefore, must needs interpret the thought of an author into equivalent phrases, copying as closely as he can the style and the word values of the author; and naturally no two translators will use exactly the same words. The editor of this volume did not compare her translation of the Spangenberg Diary with that in the Colonial Records until after this version was complete, therefore verbal differences are many, though the meaning remains the same. In the second place, before this translation was made a number of additional sheets had been found in the Archives, which belonged with those used by Rev. R. P. Leinbach, and these sheets give much new material for this translation.

The exploring party left Bethlehem, Pa., Aug. 25, 1752, on horseback, going to Philadelphia, then down the east coast of Chesapeake Bay, taking a boat across the Bay to Norfolk, and again on horseback to Edenton. There they were joined by Granville's chief surveyor, William Churton. From Edenton they followed the beaten track westward to what is now Guilford County, then went south-west to the Catawba River, following it up from the last settlement into the "bush." They went up Little River, surveying tracts in what is now Alexander County, but instead of crossing the Brushy Mountains they came back to the Catawba, following it to its head waters, and taking up other pieces of land that seemed to them desirable, but nowhere finding 100,000 acres in one tract, as they wished. From the head waters of the Catawba they planned to go across to the head waters of the Yadkin, but the hunter who had been engaged as guide lost his way, and took them too far to the west, across the crest of the Blue Ridge, and then northward, until they reached what proved to be the head waters of New River. Finally they laid their course south-east by the compass, and taking the mountains as they came they happened upon what was doubtless Lewis Fork of the Yadkin, which brought them down to the river a short distance above where Wilkesboro now stands. There they measured off two pieces, and heard of the tract later known as Wachovia; and on the "three forks of Muddy Creek" they made their final survey. No account is given of the return to Pennsylvania, but as two papers are dated at "Lüneberg Co. Va." it is evident they took the "lower" or middle road across Virginia.

The leader of the party was Bishop August Gottlieb Spangenberg, affectionately termed "Br. Joseph" by his associates. Hermann Loesch was the only one who became a resident of North Carolina.]

NORTH CAROLINA LAND GRANTS IN TENNESSEE, 1778–1791

INTRODUCTION

This book was reproduced in a facsimile edition in 1958 by Cartwright and Gardiner of Memphis. Being a facsimile reproduction of the original, the pages had to be reduced considerably and, hence, many of the names are difficult to read. It was felt that a more legible version of these grants be made available to the public; hence the duplication of these grants in this book.

This book contains 5,486 land grants issued by the state of North Carolina in the new state of Tennessee. The counties in which this land fell were: Davidson, Greene, Hawkins, Sullivan, Sumner, Tennessee, Washington and the Eastern, Middle and Western Districts.

"Early records of Tennessee are scarce. Census schedules for 1790 of the Western Territory (Tennessee) were burned, so too were the 1800, and all but one county (Rutherford) for 1810. This list of land owners and/or settlers constitutes the only substitute for a 1790 census of the part of North Carolina which became Tennessee in 1796.

"The preemption claims listed in Section II signify actual residence. The other sections: purchase grants, grants for military service, and payment for survey and guard duty indicate probability of residence. This list is an invaluable 'pointer' to the county of residence of Tennessee's earliest pioneers. Examination of the various county records should provide more details. Section III deals with grants based on Military Warrants for Revolutionary service...."

"now out of his time" was given 50 acres in the "forks between Broad and Saluda Rivers." [66]

Michael Kalteisen (spelling varied) was bound out to John Clark, shoemaker at Ashley Ferry. At Clark's death his time was sold to Dr. Frederick Holtzendorph who discharged Kalteisen's "indenture for a consideration paid." Kalteisen was awarded fifty acres between the Savannah and Santee rivers, 1752,[67] but his subsequent activities concerned the city of Charles Town. He was wagon master general in the Cherokee War, 1760-61, and also in 1775. The next year he was commissary of military stores and at the time of his death, 1807, was commander of Fort Johnson in the Charleston harbor.[68] One of the last references to this sturdy patriot was on the occasion of General Christopher Gadsden's death in August, 1805.

> Captain Kalteison, the venerable commandant at Ft. Johnson, as soon as he was informed of the death of the general, had the colours of the fort hung in mourning, and fired a gun every ten minutes, from the morning of yesterday (August 29) until the body was interned (afternoon of August 30). The vessels in the harbor has their colours half-masted throughout the day.[69]

John William Lizard was bound out to Mr. Mongen, watchmaker, transferred to John Ulrich Tobler and took up 50 acres on the Savannah River, 1752,[70] probably in Mr. Tobler's community of New Windsor.

Two hundred acres on the Savannah were also given to John Valentine Cloudy in 1752. He, his wife, son Tobias, and another child had come from Rotterdam and he had served time with the Honorable William Ball, Jun., Esq.[71] Matthew Row and his wife served out their indentures with John Coming Ball and were awarded 160 acres between the Savannah and Santee rivers.

Another immigrant was Elizabeth Dor. Saunders who had come over from Rotterdam. Bound out to Alexander McGregor and "by him convey'd to others," her time was purchased by Jacob Culp who married her. Her bounty was paid to Culp, along with 150 acres, 1752.[72] Probably this was Jacob Culp (also Kolb) member of an important and patriotic family in the Pedee area, as the notice further remarked that "Culp came into this province about six months since having lived in Pennsylvania and Virginia some time." [73]

During these years scores of other German redemptionists had served out their indentures and were given land. A sampling indicates the areas being settled at that time.

Craven County: Harman Rich, wife, and one child, 150 acres, 1756.[74]

Granville County: Andrew Baumler and wife, 100 acres, 1756;[75] Katherine Barbara Bunkmeyer, 50 acres 1755;[76] John Jacob Zahler, 50 acres, 1755;[77] Anna Croesmanin, fifty acres, 1755;[78] Ursula Fingerlin, 50 acres, 1755.[79]

Also in Granville County, were Anna Maria Mire, wife of John, 50 acres on the Saltketchers (Salkehatchie River), 1755;[80] Mary Ann Winegelerin, 50 acres on the Saltketchers, 1755;[81] Albert Akerman, wife, and one child, 150 acres "on or near" Salkehatchie River, 1754 (they had arrived in 1731);[82] and George Gardiner (a carpenter), wife, and their one-year old child, formerly bound to Rev. Mr. Joachim Zubly, 150 acres about the Salkcatchers, 1754.[83] In or near Purisburgh, also bound to Rev. Mr. Zubly, were Leonard Rhyuhower and wife who were given 100 acres, 1754.[84]

Farther up the Savannah River, on Stevens' Creek, but still in Granville County was Jacob Pright, wife, and Christopher, his twelve-year old son, who was given 100 acres.[85]

Elsewhere, John Adam Eyering, wife, and two children, found 200 acres in Castle Creek Swamp, 1755;[86] Conrade Vintinger, wife, and two children, 200 acres on Chinquapin Branch, 1755;[87] George Shebby, 50 acres in Caump Creek;[88] Conrad Schram, 50 acres in Amelia Township, 1755;[89] Christian Findling, 50 acres between the Savannah and Santee rivers, 1755, with 100 acres later on Duncan's Creek;[90] and Elizabeth Herr, 50 acres in the fork of the Broad and Saluda rivers, 1754.[91]

As to the large numbers of these redemptioners, such evidence may serve two purposes. Their dispersal into the backcountry, during and after "their time," would certainly indicate the larger proportion of settlers there had derived from the movement. Also, it would seem that a type of "western democracy," comparable to the Sons of Liberty in Charleston and the Tidewater would have developed by the time of the Revolution. This latter observation, however, may be questioned as many of the Germans in the interior preferred to remain loyal to the Crown rather than side with the Revolutionaries.

From France Mss. on Caldwell Family.

The earliest records of the Caldwells found in recent investigations relate to three brothers, John, Alexander and Oliver who were seamen on the Mediterranean Sea in the latter part of the 14th Century.

John, Alex and Oliver ~~Cromwell~~ Caldwell commanded vessels under the Brothers Barbarosa who had complete (Sic) of the Mediterranean. After about twenty years the influence of the Barbarosa brothers were ended in the death of Barbarosa Horut who was defeated and slain in 1518. The Caldwell Brothers returned to Toulon in France where they had been born and settled nearby at Mt. Aria (Airy : MAL). Arid L.R.M.?

One night they came upon Francis I, their king, who occasionally liked a touch of adventure himself if one believes the various stories of the day. The three brothers who well knew their king, recognized him but being possessed of a wild spirit of adventure and satire of humor, pretended they did not know him and set upon their king and gave him a good drubbing and robbed him of his boots. Francis I had known them well since the days of their prominence with Barbarosa. He recognized them and now pursued them and made France so uncongenial for them that they sought pastures anew. That event could not have occurred later than 1547 for in that year Francis I died. Where the brothers Caldwell went is not known immediately but later in the year 1603 they appeared in Scotland where they purchased, with the consent of James I, the estate of a Bishop named Douglas near Solway Firth.

The purchase of this estate was allowed by James I on condition that the said brothers, late of Mt. Aria, France, should have the estate, known as CAULDWELL, and when the King should require they should each send a son with twenty men of sound limb to aid the king in his wars.

*MAL - 1970 Address, Chapel Hill, N. C.

The name is said to have been spelled variously Colvelle, (Calvill?) Cayldwell, Cauldwell and Caldwell and means cold wells in reference to the wells of cold water which were on the original estate in Scotland. There is a cup preserved in the Castle of Caldwell, Ireland, as an heirloom from which it is seen that the estate took its name from a watering place. The cup represents a chieftain and 30 mounted men, all armed, and a man drawing water from a well with the words underneath "Alexander of Cauldwell"; also a fire burning on a hill over the words "Mt. Aria" and a ship surrounded by high waves. Motto: Nets focere experere – to strive to do to test.

The men of Cauldwell early entered the wars of Ireland. Joseph, John, Alexander, Daniel, David and Andrew of Cauldwell went with Oliver Cromwell, whose grandmother was Ann Cauldwell, to Ireland of which Cromwell was Lord Governor. The recent investigations in America prove that the Caldwells of America, which tradition says was of a common ancestry, comprise at least six distinct branches of the family, each starting from a separate immigration from Ireland.
1st : Seems to have been Andrew Caldwell who immigrated to America in 1718 and settled in Lancaster Co. Pa. His wife was Ann Stewart.
2nd was Capt. John Caldwell, who, with his family, landed at Newcastle, Del. Dec. 10, 1727.
3rd : James Caldwell in 1769 finally settled in Salisbury Mills, Orange Co., N.Y.
4th : James Caldwell landed in Maryland in 1770. He married Elizabeth Alexander.
5th : Samuel Caldwell in 1741 settled in Lancaster Co. Pa. His wife was Elizabeth Buchanan who had died in Ireland prior to 1741.
6th : John Caldwell in 1787 settled in Cumberland Co. Pa. He was married in Ireland to Ann King.
*7th (LA) Several families of Caldwell landed in S. C. direct from Ireland between 1760 and 1774.

Memory A. Lester: I would like proof that Capt. (John) Caldwell was a son of Joseph Caldwell. In a record given by the descendents of John Rodgers (Mother was Margaret Caldwell only dau. of Capt. John) it is stated that the father of Capt. John Caldwell was (David) Caldwell and that David was a son of John Caldwell of Scotland. It seems odd if Capt. John's father was JOSEPH, that Capt. John nor any of his sons used the name of Joseph for their children (John Jr. had a son Joseph LA) which would be most unusual at that time.

Memory A. Lester: Another error in France Mss. is that Jane or Jeane Caldwell, sister of Capt. John married (WILLIAM) RITCHIE - she md.

Alexander Richey or Ritchey. Alex Richey's will proves Jeane to be his wife and the Richey descendents have had this record for scores of years and it is well authenticated. There were brothers of Alexander Richey who came over with Capt. John John Caldwell as did Capt. John's own brothers so Wm. Ritchie was some relation and perhaps a brother of Alexander. Mrs. Leila R. Mize of Athens, Ga., has done Richey records personally in both Pennsylvania and in Virginia and we have proof (Court records) of Alex and Jane or Jeane. Jeane's will Pr. Edward Co. Va. 1785 and Alexander's will 1749 in same County, Pr. Edward formerly Amelia. (found in Amelia D.B. M.)

Hello and thank you for allowing me to send you this information which is the result of much research from many sources over a period of several years. My name is Norm Atkins and a friend of mine is sending this to you. His AOL address is RJOSEPHS01 (thath's a zero one at the end). We are both new to this wonderful medium and hope we have done everything correctly in order to post this information. We hope it will answer many questions, fill in gaps, and perhaps help others as well. Thank you again most sincerely.

My Alexander Thompson was born circa 1765, assuming he was 21 years old when he married Margaret Ritchey in Prince Edward County, Va in 1786. Probably born in Va., possibly in Bedford County, Va. Alexander's brother, William was younger than Alexander. My Alexander and William's father was also William Thompson. This elder William was in Lincoln Co., Ky by 1775. I believe he was dead by 1797.

A possibility for you would be John Thompson m. Margaret Means. They lived in Augusta County, Va. and had at least four sons; Thomas m. Mary (?), Robert m. Agnes (?), Edward m. Jane (?), and James m. Rebecca Guy. This Thomas would have been born sometime around 1740 (?).

John Thompson was the brother of William Thompson, who married Mary Patton, daughter of Col. James Patton. Other brothers were; Robert Thompson, Hugh Thompson, and Col. Alexander Thompson. In turn their father was William Thompson who settled Augusta County, Va. prior to 1739.

This family settled mostly near present day Fisherville, Va and were a part of the Tinkling Springs Congregation (Presbyterian) which was recognised by the Virgina Commonwealth after they swore allegiance to the Crown and the Chruch of England. They do have baptismal records but no early marriage records. Reason was that the Crown did not recognize marriages performed by the Prysbeterian church in Virginia. The pastor (circut rider, Craig) stated that he married many people but they never were legally accepted unless santified by the Church of England. In other words, you had to be married by the Church of England to be legally married! See The Tinkling Spring: Headwater of Freedom by; The Tinkling Spring Presbyterian Church (1974).

Dear Sir,

I believe he was dead by 1797.

A possibility for you would be John Thompson m. Margaret Meeks. They lived in Augusta County, Va. and had at least four sons; Thomas m. Mary (?), Robert m. Agnes (?), Edward m. Jane (?), and James m. Rebecca Ray. This Thomas would have been born sometime around 1760 (?).

John Thompson was the brother of William Thompson, who married Mary Patton, daughter of Col. James Patton. Other brothers were; Robert Thompson, Hugh Thompson, and Col. Alexander Thompson. In turn their father was William Thompson who settled Augusta County, Va. prior to 1739.

This family settled mostly near present day Staunton, Va and were a part of the Tinkling Springs Congregation (Presbyterian) which was recognized by the Virginia Commonwealth after they swore allegiance to the Crown and the Church of England. They do have baptismal records but no early marriage records. Reason was that the Crown did not recognize marriage performed by the Presbyterian church in Virginia. The pastor (circa 1746, Craig) stated that he married many people but they never were legally accepted unless sanctified by the Church of England. In other words, you had to be married by the Church of England to be legally married! See The Tinkling Spring: Headwater of Freedom by: The Tinkling Spring Presbyterian Church (1974).

MACKINTOSH

CREST BADGE : A cat salient gardant, proper.
MOTTO : Touch not the cat bot a glove (Touch not the cat without a glove).
GAELIC NAME : Mac an Toisich.

THE clan name is derived from Mac-an-Toisich and means "son of the chief." The founder of the clan is traditionally said to have been a son of MacDuff, ancestor of the Earls of Fife. The Mackintoshes are one of the clans forming the Clan Chattan Confederation, the chiefship of which devolved on the chiefs of Mackintosh through the marriage in 1291 of Angus, 6th Laird of Mackintosh, to Eva, heiress of Clan Chattan.

The first mention of the Mackintosh as Captain of Clan Chattan is in a charter granted to William Mackintosh by the Lord of the Isles in 1337, and confirmed by King David II in 1359.

The rise of the Mackintoshes led to a period of feuds with the Earls of Moray and Huntly, and the clans Cameron, MacDonells of Keppoch, and Gordon. In 1639 when Huntly supported the King, Mackintosh joined the Covenanters north of the Spey, and he formed part of the army opposing Cromwell, 1650. At the Revolution the Mackintoshes supported the new government and refused to join Viscount Dundee.

They were prominent in the Jacobite Rising of 1715 under Brigadier Mackintosh of Borlum. Angus, chief in 1745, was on service with Loudon's Highlanders when the Rising took place, but Lady Anne his wife, who was a Farquharson of Invercauld, raised the clan for Prince Charles and her strategy was responsible for the Rout of Moy when 1500 of the government troops were put to flight by half a dozen of Lady Mackintosh's retainers. Here the famous piper Donald Ban MacCrimmon, who accompanied the Royalist force, was killed. Following the death in 1938 of the 28th Chief the chiefships of Clan Mackintosh and Clan Chattan were separated.

attainted Lord Seaforth, General Wade, in his report (1724) to the Government, wrote :

The (Seaforth) Rents continue to be levied by one Donald Murchieson, a Servant of the late Earl's, who annually remits (or carries) the same to his Master in France. The Tenants when in a Condition are also said to have sent him free Gifts in proportion to their several Circumstances, but are now a year and a half in Arrears of Rent. The Receipts he gives to the Tenants are, as Deputy Factor to the Commissioners of Forfeited Estates, which pretended Power in the year 1721 he extorted from the Factor appointed by the said Commissioners to Collect those Rents for the use of the Publick, whom he attacked with above 400 Arm'd Men as he was going to enter upon the said Estate ; having with him a Body of 30 of Your Majesty's Troops. The last year this Murchison travell'd in a Public manner to Edinburgh to remit £800 to France for his Master's use, and remained there fourteen days unmolested.

Sir Roderick Impey Murchison, the distinguished geologist, was a descendant of the family.

(6) MacVanish, MacVinish.—A subordinate sept, dependents of the MacKenzies. Some of the MacVanishes are mentioned in 1600 as followers of the Chief of the MacKenzie clan. Dr. MacBain gives " Son of Magnus " as the probable derivation of MacVinish.

(7) Charleson, MacThearlaich.—Equated with Mackerlich.

CLAN MACKINNON SEPTS

(1) MacKinny, MacKinning, MacKinven, Love.—The first two are transmogrifications of the name Mackinnon. For the last two, Kintyre is responsible.

(2) MacMorran.—The Mackinnons of Mull are known as the " Clan Mhoirein " or MacMorrans, from Moghron, meaning " Son of the Seal."

CLAN MACKINTOSH SEPTS

(1) McKeggie.

(2) MacCombie, MacOmie, MacThomas, etc.—" The son of Thomas " or " Tommie's son." The MacCombies are descended from a younger son of the 6th Chief of Macintosh. They settled in Glen Shee some centuries ago. In the Roll of the Clans of 1587, they appear as the " Clan M'Thomas in Glenesche," the name appears again in the Roll of the Clans of 1594, as " M'Thomas in Glenesche." Captain Patrick W. MacThomas was adjudged Representer and Chief of the Clan MacThomas in Glenshee by Lyon Court in 1968.

(3) Shaw.—The chief family of this sept of the MacKintoshes were the Shaws of Rothiemurchus, descended from Shaw, son of Gilchrist, son of John, son of Angus, 6th Chief of MacKintosh. This Shaw, owing to the configuration of his front teeth was called Corr fiachlach. He was granted the lands of Rothiemurchus in 1396. The seat of the Chief of the Shaws was the beautifully situated castle of Loch-an-eilean, in the loch of that name. In 1536 Allan Shaw, 5th of Rothiemurchus, was owing to pecuniary difficulties compelled to part with the estate to Adam Gordon, reserving only his son's life-rent. The Gordons in 1573 sold the estate to the Grants to whom it now belongs. Loch-an-eilean Castle is now a ruin. The Shaws of Tordarroch are descended from Adam, second son of James Shaw, 2nd of Rothiemurchus. From the Christian name of their progenitor they bear the name of "Clan Ay" (or Clan Adam). The Laird of Tordarroch is their chief.

(4) MacAy, MacHay.—Some of the Tordarroch Shaws moved into Ross-shire about the beginning of the seventeenth century, settling in the neighbourhood of Tarradale. They were known as McAy and McHay but no connection with the Mackays of Sutherland.

(5) Tosh, Toshack, Hossack.—The Toshes or Toshachs are the oldest cadets of the family of Mackintosh, being descended from Edward, son of Shaw, 2nd Chief of Mackintosh. They settled in Perthshire, where they held lands in Monzievaird, Culcrief, Pittenzie, and Glentilt. In 1599 the Toshes, oppressed by the Drummonds and Murrays, entrusted their title deeds to Mackintosh. MacKeggie (No. 1) is supposed a form of the above names, Tosh or Toshach.

(6) Adamson, Ayson, and Esson.

(7) Hardy, MacHardie, MacCardney.—Vide Farquharson Septs.

James Shaw of Crathinard on Deeside married the daughter and heiress of John Machardy of Crathie.

(8) Crerar.—Fraser-MacKintosh (Minor Septs of Clan Chattan) writes:

> Originally MacKintoshes it is a matter of tradition that the name took its rise in the person of a prominent member owing his safety to concealment from his foes in a manner somewhat similar to that connected with the Lobans of Drumderfit.

A letter regarding the Crerars appeared in the Celtic Magazine, May 1880:

> My ancestors were always called Mackintoshes in Gaelic, and my grandfather is so designated, though a Crerar, on his tombstone in the churchyard of his native glen in Perthshire. Before the Breadalbane clearances many families of the name of Crerar resided at Glenquaich and at Loch Tayside, who used to muster at the Kenmore markets arrayed in the genuine Mackintosh tartan, and wearing sprigs of boxwood in their Highland bonnets. There are many on this side of the Atlantic now calling themselves Mackintoshes who were at home known as Crerars.

(9) Noble.—Fraser-MacKintosh says:

> This name was found chiefly in Strathnairn and Strathdearn dwelling amid the Clan Chattan. Some, particularly tenants of Raigmore, are still to be found in the parish of Moy.

(10) McConchy.

(11) MacAndrew.—Sliochd Andrais are supposed to have come from the West Highlands at the same time as the Macqueens of Corryborough. They took protection from Mackintosh about 1400, and settled in Connage of Petty.

(12) McKillican.

(13) MacGlashan.—Mentioned by Fraser-MacKintosh (Minor Septs of Clan Chattan) as dependent on Mackintosh.

(14) Glen, Glennie.—Kennedy's Annals of Aberdeen, 1399, mentions suit of Willielmus Gleny, with respect to the wool from certain lands. These lands are still called "Glennie's Parks." Glennies settled in Strathdon and Deeside appear to have followed the banner of Mackintosh.

(15) Ritchie, Macritchie.—An offshoot from Mackintosh of Dalmunzie, in which family Richard was a frequent name.

(16) Macniven, Niven.—William, Chief of Mackintosh, in the early sixteenth century married Isabel MacNiven, heiress of Dunnachtan.

(17) Seath, Seth.—These are said to be Shaws.

CLAN MACLACHLAN SEPTS

(1) Lachlan, Lauchlan.—Abbreviations of MacLachlan.

(2) Ewan, MacEwen, etc.—An old clan now extinct as such, derived from the same tribe as the MacLachlans and the MacNeills, viz., the Siol Gillivray. The ancient seat of the Chief of Clan Ewen was at Otter Lochfyne, in Cowal. In the twelfth century the Lamonts, MacEwens, and MacLachlans were in possession of the greater part of the district of Cowal, from Toward Point to Strachur. Lamonts were separated from MacEwens by the River Kilfinnan, and MacEwens from MacLachlans by the stream which divides the parishes of Kilfinnan and Strath Lachlan.

In 1432 Swene, son of Ewen, resigned to King James I. the Barony of Ottirinwerane in Cowale, which the King granted to him anew with remainder to Celestine Cambel, the son and heir of Duncan Cambel of Lochaw. By an indenture in the same year at the Ottir it was agreed that when Suffne M'Ewyn, Laird of Ottirinweran, should have an heir he should pay to Gillaspy Cambel, the son and heir of Duncan Cambel, Lord of Lochaw, on one day or otherwise at Gillaspy's pleasure, sixty marks Scots and twenty-five sufficient marks at the Ottirweran, Inchconnil, or Innerayra, or give him the two Larragis and the lands of Killala in the Barony of Ottir for yearly payment of half a mark, and should his heir die before he should have another, that the agreement should remain valid, and Suffne should give Gillaspy the first offer of the land if leased. In this manner the heritage of the Clan Ewen passed into the rapacious grasp of the Campbells. After their extinction as a clan the MacEwens of Cowal appear to have followed their the chief put forward was MacGregor of Balhaldie, who had no just right to the chiefship. Thereafter MacGregors fought for the Stuarts in three Jacobite Risings, in 1715 under Balhaldie, Glengyle and his uncle Rob Roy, in 1719 under Rob Roy, in 1745 under Glengyle and MacGregor of Glencarnaig.

At last, in 1775, by Act of Parliament the Name of MacGregor was restored to the clan—a clan being thus statutorily recognised by the Imperial Parliament; and John MacGregor Murray of Lanrick, nephew of Glencarnaig of the '45, was, by 856 MacGregors endorsing his pedigree, submitted to the Lord Lyon. Lanrick's claim to the chiefship had been disputed by the MacGregors of Glengyle and of Balhadie. But in 1795 the Lord Lyon, in exercise of the Royal prerogative, was pleased to give effect to this by confirming to Sir John the chief arms of MacGregor of MacGregor, and the line of baronets, of Lanrick and Balquhidder, have accordingly since been the hereditary chiefs of the clan. Auchmar says of the MacGregors :

> The surname is now divided into four principal families. The first is that of the laird of MacGregor, being in a manner extinct, there being few or none of any account of the same. The next family to that of MacGregor is Dugald Keir's family, so named from their ancestor, Dugal Keir, a son of the laird of MacGregor ; the principal person of that family is MacGregor of Glengyle, whose residence and interest is at the head of Lochcattern, in the parish of Callander, in the shire of Perth. The third family is that of Rora in Rannoch, in the shire of Perth. The fourth family is that of Brackly.

The famous Rob Roy was a son of MacGregor of Glengyle by a sister of the notorious Captain Robert Campbell of Glenlyon. Rob Roy, deprived of his lands by quarrels with the House of Montrose, became a prominent Jacobite and his exploits form a vivid chapter in Highland romance.

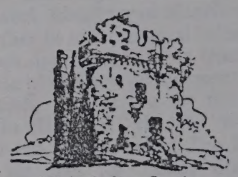
In 1624 about 300 MacGregors from the Earl of Moray's estates in Menteith had been brought north to oppose the Mackintoshes. Many of these settled in Aberdeenshire. In 1715 Rob Roy was sent by the Earl of Mar to raise them for the Chevalier, seeing these MacGregors were of the same stock as his own family.

During the time of the proscription of the MacGregors in 1748 a conference was held at Blair Atholl of the Clan Alpin (Grants, Mackinnons, Macnabs, etc.), for assuming a common name. If reversal of the proscription of the Macgregors could be obtained, the name of MacGregor might be adopted by all the branches of Clan Alpin ; but if it were found impossible to obtain such reversal, then some other name should be adopted. Two matters caused the conference to break up without any result : (1) the question of the chiefship, (2) the name to be adopted.

MACINNES

Remarkably little of this clan's history is recorded. Lt.-Col. J. Macinnes (author of Brave Sons of Skye) derives them from one, Angus, whom he says " was succeeded by his son Murchad, and this is all we know of his descendents for hundreds of years "—a statement which presents problems for the genealogist. The real position seems to be that MacGillivrays and Macinneses were of the original Dalriads, akin to the O'Duine, though they held castleward under the Macdonald regime in its day of power.

An old tradition has it that, after returning from an expedition, in which the Macinneses had borne themselves very bravely, the chief of the clan was addressed thus by the Lord of the Isles : Mo theannachd ort Fhir Chinn-Lochalainn ! fhad's a bhios MacDòhmnuill a stigh, cha bhi MacAonghais a muigh—" My blessing on you, Chief of Kinlochaline ! while MacDonald is in power, Macinnes shall be in favour." This is another instance of the territorial tendency which is so strongly present in clan history and in the customs of the Lordship of the Isles.



Kinlochaline Castle.

A later Chief of Clan Macinnes was apparently Keeper of the Castle of Kinlochaline in Morvern, and seems to have held it for Roderick MacKenzie of Coigeach, the celebrated " Tutor of Kintail," when the castle was burnt about 1645 by young Colkitto the Royalist.

Logan seems to connect Macinnes with the siege, and the castle in a Macinnes coat of arms suggests keepership.

A family of the Macinneses were hereditary bowmen to the Chief of the Clan Mackinnon. Tradition deduces this line from a second son of the Keeper, and from it descended the Macinneses of Rickerby, who (illegally) bore without registration the gyrony and castle coat of arms. Arms of a scion of the Malagawatch branch have been recorded in Lyon Court.

MACKINTOSH

The Mackintoshes are supposed to derive their name from the Gaelic word Toisach, and from the Thaneage of Petty in Moray, and were styled Princeps Regionum, or " Chief of the Country," well illustrating the territorial duthus—base of the clan system. They were later on held to have inherited, as heir of line, the chiefship of Clan Chattan, and both designations thereafter descended with the estates by entail and tanistry.

According to Nisbet (who states that he got the narrative from the Laird of Mackintosh), the 1st Chief of Mackintosh was Shaw, second son to Duncan, the second of that name, Earl of Fife, who accompanied King Malcolm IV. in his expedition in suppressing the rebels in Moray in 1160; and was rewarded with many lands in the north, and made Constable of the Castle of Inverness. "He was commonly called Mac-an-Tòisich mhic Duibh, that is to say, Thane MacDuff's son, from which the name Mackintosh became a surname to posterity."

In the seventeenth century the chiefship of the Clan Chattan was a disputed point between the Mackintoshes and the Macphersons. However, a full discussion of the controversy (which, in the seventeenth century, both parties regarded as a litigateable subject, and related to heraldry) lies beyond the scope of this article,[1] where we are only concerned with what was decided; namely by Lyon, 10th September 1672, that Mackintosh was "Chief of the Name of Mackintosh" and "Chief of the Clan Chattan," and that the "Laird of Mackintosh's" (as he officially describes him) "predecessor married the heretrix of the Clan Chattan, anno 1291." The Privy Council accepted Lyon's decision, and disallowed Cluny-Macpherson's bonds as "Chief of the Clan." It has been observed (Proc. of Soc. of Antiquaries, XV., 126-127) that "In whatever else they differ, the Macphersons and the Mackintoshes seem always to agree as to the fact of the marriage." Lyon, moreover, (officially) declares that his pronouncement proceeded on evidence inter alia in "my registers," and many of the older Lyon Court registers have vanished since 1672.

There is, however, independent evidence of the structure of the Clan Chattan, before and after the matrimonial alliance. There is noticeably no lion (Mackintosh emblem) in the arms of Macpherson, Gillies, Gillespie, MacGillivray, McIntyre; and these, with the galley—emblems, probably represent pre-1291 Clan Chattan branches, and the "incorporeal heritage" which passed down to and through Eva along with the undifferenced galley-quartering, whilst Cluny-Macpherson, the heir male, retained the galley differenced by "parting per fess."

[1] In this momentous controversy the modern (anglicised) idea that a woman could not take or transmit a "Highland chiefship" was never even raised; as a doctrine it was unknown to Scotland, Highland or Lowland. The argument was that the Mackintosh line, not having taken the name Macpherson, could neither inherit nor hold the chiefship of Clan Chattan. To this Mackintosh retorted that since the chiefship of this community could be, and had been, held by one named Macpherson, "name" was not an essential to chiefship of that particular group, and that "Chattan" would, if any, be the essential name (derived from the eponymus Gillichattan-Mhor)—which, if need be, he would assume. The decision—to summarise it in brief—was that in a community comprehending various names, and as a group called after the eponymus Chattan, the name Chattan had not been indispensable, and that of Macpherson could not be indispensable; so that there was nothing to prevent a person named Mackintosh being a chief of Clan Chattan, or in other words that the "son of the thane" was no less eligible than the "son of the parson," provided there was heirship at law or by tailzie! Lyon's decision was pretty much on the true thread of opinion in MacGillivray v. Souter, 1862, with the difference that Lord Lyon understood both families, clans, and armorial law, whereas the Lords of Session understood the principles of neither, and made many incongruous and anti-Celtic utterances. In 1672 Mackintosh became the chief-name.

The Clan Chattan were among the vassals of the Lord of the Isles. But when in 1429 Alexander, Lord of the Isles and Earl of Ross, defied the Royal authority and advanced against James I. into Lochaber at the head of a large army, the Clan Chattan and the Clan Cameron deserted the Lord of the Isles and went over to the Royal army. The result was a total defeat of the Lord of the Isles. The downfall of the Lord of the Isles resulted in the advancement of the Mackintoshes, for in 1431 Malcolm Mackintosh, Captain of the Clan Chattan, received a grant of the territories of Alexander of Lochaber, uncle of the Lord of the Isles. In 1466 the Lord of the Isles granted to Duncan Mackintosh the lands of Moymore and others in Lochaber. In 1493 Royal charters were given to the same Duncan of the lands which the Mackintoshes had previously held from the Lord of the Isles, among the rest the lands of Keppoch and of Innerorgan. William, 13th Chief of Mackintosh, married in 1497 Isabel, daughter of MacNiven of Dunnachton, and thereby added still further to his territorial influence.

During the Revolution of 1688, which drove the Stuarts from the throne, the Mackintoshes were on the side of the new government. In 1715, however, Lachlan, 20th Mackintosh, was active on the side of the Jacobites. On the outbreak of the Rising of "the '45," Angus, 22nd Chief, was in command of one of the companies of The Black Watch, and did not therefore raise his clan for Prince Charles. His wife, the Lady Mackintosh, however (a daughter of Farquharson of Invercauld), took a prominent part on the Jacobite side; raised the Clan Chattan for the young chevalier, and placed the Chief of the MacGillivrays at their head. The famous episode of the "Rout of Moy," when Lord Loudon's force was routed by a handful of Lady Mackintosh's retainers, was due to the boldness and stratagem of that brave lady.

The principal cadet family of the clan was Kyllachy, which derived from the issue of Ferquhard, 9th Chief, who abdicated, c. 1409, and whose issue were called Slioch Ferchar vich Lachlan.

The ancient seat of the Chief of Mackintosh was on an island in Loch Moy, and subsequently nearby at Moy Hall, near Inverness; and on its descent on tailzie of Alfred Donald, 28th Chief (who died 1938), Lyon Court in 1947 held that Rear-Admiral Lachlan Mackintosh of Mackintosh had become by tanistry The Mackintosh and Chief of the Clan. His son, Lieutenant Commander Lachlan Ronald Duncan Mackintosh of Mackintosh is the present chief.

MACINTYRE

The Clan-an-Teir, otherwise Clan-an-t-saor, meaning "children of the carpenter," traditionally came to Lorn from the Hebrides in a galley with a white cow (which may have some traditional significance), and established themselves as a small but independent clan, claiming to have been settled in Glen Oe (Glen Noe), near Bonawe, Argyll, by 1300, though other chronological indications suggest that the "1st Chief of

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS

RICH FAMILY

By Ada R. Chase, of Norwich, Connecticut

I am indebted to Mrs. H. C. Young of Ebenezer, N.Y., for a correction to my article, "Some Descendants of Nicholas Rich of Salem, Massachusetts," in The American Genealogist, vol. 22, pp. 94-105. Forty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Young started a Rich Reunion, but only recently have been able to prove the family record, after a trip to Massachusetts, Vermont and New York. I am also indebted to Mrs. Bessie Carven Collins, of Salina, Michigan, and Mrs. H. A. Edmunds of Chelsea-on-Hudson, New York, for other information.

Jonathan[4] Rich (Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Nicholas[1]) did not marry Abigail Barton (as stated 22:100) but Mehitable Daggett. The following is the corrected record of the family of his father, Samuel[3] (No. 8, p. 101):

8. Samuel[3] Rich (Samuel[2], Nicholas[1]), b. 10 July 1712 (Mendon, Mass., V. p. 149); d. abt. 1789 (will
